

Led to the Happiness after Healing of Lung, Lymph Tuberculosis

Deacon Injoon Chun (1-3 Canaan Mission; Dramax Cable Broadcasting)

It all began when I was in charge of designing programs working in OAP (On-Air Promotion) team at a Cable TV Company. I was getting tired of working overnight and following an irregular schedule. The workload was huge and I often became overstressed. Eventually I began to skip Daniel Prayer Meetings and my God-given duties in the church were becoming a big burden.

One day in August 2007, I found lumps around my neck which were as big as a grape. At first I didn't realize it was a big problem, but later it got worse and I had to go to hospital for a medical test. And I was diagnosed with lymph tuberculosis.

The doctor recommended a medication treatment. After I came back home I thought that there must be a clear reason for not having been protected as a child of God and I looked back on myself. I repented that I ceased to pray because I was busy at work. I repented neglecting my God-given duties and my love for the worldly things. As soon as I received the prayer from Dr. Jaerock Lee, the swelling receded.

But still I couldn't cast off all things that I loved. I couldn't overcome my desires with my willpower, but God gave me the strength to win over this world. Also when I asked Him in prayers, God gave me comfort and grace from above.

As I came to have the hope for New Jerusalem, the most glorious place in heaven, and I desired to take after the heart of the Lord, I could bear better fruit in my workplace. I also tried to please God by praying for and visiting the members and doing volunteer works in the church.

My body got well to the point that I no longer felt uncomfortable. But in order to have my disease perfectly healed, I added my name to the patients list for the Special Divine Healing Meeting held in November, 2008. I was certain of my healing at the moment Senior Pastor prayed for me. I went to hospital and my body was found perfectly clean. Hallelujah!

I give all the thanks and glory to God who healed my disease and blessed me in my work place.

What Happened after the Collision with the 5-ton Truck?

Deacon Hyosu Han(2-2 Men's Mission)

Deacons Hyosu Han and Byunghwa Lim

On March 13, 2009 I was driving on a highway for business with my partner Byunghwa Lim. The road was all right until we passed the tunnel on the Young Dong highway. As soon as we came out of the tunnel, the road was icy and my car lost its traction and slid into a huge truck in the next lane.

I stepped on the brake pedal to slow down, but the wheels and the brake didn't work. The car crashed into the truck and changed direction and we had a second collision sliding into the guard-rail and I finally managed to stop. The car was totally damaged and had to be scrapped.

And amazingly even after the accident, neither of us had scratches and bruises on our body. The police arrived at the scene and were surprised to see us not injured at all.

We give thanks to God and the Lord who protected us in this deadly accident.

"I Dreamt that I Was Thrown into a Lake of Fire"

Hyungbae Park (1-1 Canaan Mission)

I came to read about the horror of hell in the book "Hell" my mother had given me before I enlisted in the military.

While serving in the military, I had a dream. In the dream I was pursuing all worldly pleasures. Then I saw a heavenly door open and the Lord come down. All of a sudden, I was standing before the Judgment and everything that I had done was revealed on the sea of glass before the throne of God. There was no good works by which I could be given salvation. God said to me, "You must go to Hell." I was then thrown into Hell. I woke up, very surprised. And I fell back to sleep.

In the second dream I was back again in Hell. I cried and cried asking for help. At that very moment, Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee appeared to me surrounded by dazzling light, and, stretching out his hand, he said to me, "The Father gave you another chance."

Could it be that God heard the prayer and saw the tears of the shepherd who doesn't want to lose even one soul? As soon as I woke up, I shed tears and prayed a prayer of thanksgiving.

From that time on, my faith has been totally changed.

I wish for many people to also know the horror of Hell and reach salvation through the book "Hell."

The Book that Causes the Readers to Realize the Importance of Salvation

Dr. Jaerock Lee doesn't want people to find out about Hell after they die. The book "Hell" is based upon the Bible and explains the degrees and torments of Hell.

The author says, "The saddest fact is there are people who believe in God but still love this world without the hope for heaven and they keep committing sins not knowing the horrors of Hell." This book describes the horror of hell in considerable detail. I believe this book will save many souls from Hell.

The great gift and warning of God to mankind, the book "Hell" is surely worth reading and this book is highly recommended to religious organization.

Easter! The Lord has risen!

Easter Celebration Service and Easter Cantata

In celebration of Easter our church had a celebration ceremony and performance of Easter Cantata. On April 12th the Senior Pastor delivered the message under the title "The Meaning of Resurrection" based on John 14:6 during the Sunday morning service and in the evening service he delivered a message under the title "What God Wants" and it was followed by the Holy Communion.

On March 29th, prior to baptism there were studies for new believers and on April 5th a baptism ceremony was held.

During the 2nd session of Friday all night service on April 10th there was the presentation of the Easter Cantata (Theme: Recollection). Over 500 people including actors, staff and choir members participated in this Cantata. It will be broadcast around the world on GCN and Manmin TV.

Easter Eggs Distributed in Celebration of Easter

There was a sharing of Easter eggs in celebration of the resurrection of the Lord. The women's mission shared the joy of resurrection with nearby public offices and companies and passersby by giving away Easter eggs. Members of Light and Salt Mission whose members work on Sundays in department stores, food service and restaurants also shared the love of the Lord by thoughtfully giving attractively packed Easter eggs to their coworkers.

"Happy Concert" Gospel Sounds by the Nissi Orchestra

The Nissi Orchestra of Manmin Central Church held the 7th "Happy Concert" on April 9th in front of Ace Twin Tower in Guro Digital Complex, in Seoul, Korea. This concert was a cultural event aimed to evangelize the Guro Digital Complex and further development of community relations.

A variety of instruments attracted much attention which included the cello, flute, clarinet, vivraphone, electric violins and a brass quintet.

Spring of Life

Easter is the day to commemorate the resurrection of Jesus who overcame death and resurrected on the third day from crucifixion to redeem mankind from sins.

This is the day of blessing because we have hope of resurrection and hope of enjoying eternal life as we believe in the Lord of resurrection.

Life in this world is not the whole of it. There definitely exists another life after death.

Heaven and Hell both surely exist and those who believe in the Lord can be resurrected and enter into heaven.

That's why the Bible calls those who were saved and died 'asleep,' not 'dead.'

5. Members of Manmin Central Church confess "The Apostles' Creed" whenever they gather and believe in it verbatim.

MEMO

Fleshly Faith and Spiritual Faith

"Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. For by it the men of old gained approval. By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things which are visible." (Hebrews 11:1-3)

Faith is the most precious treasure of treasures and the key to solve all life problems. It is because Almighty God, the Creator, can do things that cannot be done by human power or ability. If you have faith, there will be no difficulty in receiving answers to diseases, family problems, business and a myriad of other problems. In considering faith, there is the true, spiritual faith that God can acknowledge and there is also fleshly faith that God will not acknowledge.

1. What Is Fleshly Faith?

First of all, fleshly faith is the faith with which you believe what agrees with your thoughts and knowledge.

If I say, 'This towel is white in color,' those who see that it is white will believe what I say. It is because it is in accordance with the knowledge that you have learned since your birth. Even the worldly people can have this kind of faith.

There are things in the world that people believe and accept as being true, but there are also things that change over time. Also, the standards and ways of thinking are very different in the cultures of different countries, with different ethnic groups, and even among individuals.

For example, a long time ago, people learned that the earth was not round but flat. They also believed the sun revolved around the earth. At that time, people thought it was true, but nobody today believes it as the truth. Today too, if somebody tells a person the truth, they may not accept the truth if it is not in agreement with their own knowledge.

Because they have been taught and learned that the false theory called "Darwinism" is true, they do not believe in Creationism, which is actually the real truth. Even after millions and billions of years, fish can never evolve into land animals nor become apes. But those who have learned the theory though, firmly believe that evolutionism is the truth.

There are also some people who say they believe in the Almighty God, but they do not believe the Bible completely. They accept only the parts that agree with their theories and knowledge. They cannot believe that the heavens and the earth were created from nothingness by the Word of God. Also, they cannot understand the powerful works performed that are impossible by human ability. So, when they read about signs and wonders, they think they could not really have taken place but it is just a parable or symbolic representation of something else. If it says Peter walked on water, they interpret that he walked on a shallow part.

If somebody is told that his disease was healed through surgery and by taking medication, they believe it. But, when they hear somebody is healed just by prayer, they doubt it and believe that there must be something else involved. This kind of belief is not spiritual faith and it is not the faith by which we can receive salvation. This kind of faith has nothing to do with God. True faith is to believe all of the words of the Bible are the inspired Word of God and the absolute truth regardless of what kind of knowledge we have gained.

Secondly, fleshly faith is the faith that is changing.

Some people pray hard, worship God diligently and lead an enthusiastic Christian life to receive answers to the desires of their hearts. But if they do not receive the answer quickly enough, they begin to doubt. If they begin to doubt, they lose grace. So, they think even the answers they received before or the testimonies of other people receiving the answers were coincidence. All their deeds to receive answers were not from true faith (James 16, 7).

You should believe that you have received all things for which you pray and ask (Mark 11:24). Therefore, if you receive prayer with faith, you will not have pains in your life any more, but you will be joyful, thankful and filled with hope. Also, only when your faith does not change, although you don't have the visible evidences right now, your faith can be recognized as 'true faith'.

Thirdly, fleshly faith is the faith that is not accompanied by actions.

Knowing the word of God and believing it are different things. When we believe the Word not only in our heads but in the deepest part of our hearts, only then will our faith be followed by the deeds according to the Word. During a long period of famine the widow in Zarepath obeyed God's command with faith and gave her last food to Elijah. As a result, she received a blessing in such a way that her bin of flour was not exhausted nor did the jar of oil become empty.

On the contrary, those who have fleshly faith know this fact in their head, but when they are in difficulties, they cannot act. If they are short of living expenses, they sometimes will not give proper tithes and become stingy about giving various offerings. If they truly believe God will pay them back with blessings for whatever they sow before God, they will never be stingy. But, because they know it only as knowledge, their deeds do not follow.

It is the same with the problem of diseases. If you truly believe that God is truly omnipotent and omniscient, you will not rely on the world. Through the account of King Asa's disease and his death we can realize how disappointed God can become with us when He looks at these faithless deeds. When King Asa became diseased in his feet, he did not seek God, but the physicians. Finally King Asa died. (2 King 16:12, 13)

In James 2:26 it says, "For just as the body without [the] spirit is dead, so also faith without works is dead." With dead faith we cannot receive answers and blessings. We might even fall away from salvation. Please, remember this fact and have faith accompanied with deeds.

2. What Is Spiritual Faith?

With spiritual faith, you can receive salvation and believe even though things do not agree with your own theories and thoughts. It is the faith of believing that something can be created from nothing. When you have this kind of faith, you can believe without any doubt that Almighty God created the heavens and the earth and He controls the life, death, fortune and misfortune of men. You will also acknowledge and rely on God in everything.

However, men cannot have this kind of spiritual faith as they want. We can have only the spiritual faith that God has allotted to each one (ref: Romans 12:3). This measure of faith is different for each individual. You can receive answers to whatever you pray for to the same extent of your spiritual faith. If men could have spiritual faith as they desired, there wouldn't be anyone who didn't receive blessings and answers to his prayers. God gives you spiritual faith to the extent you follow truth. When you pray with this spiritual faith, you will surely receive answers to your prayer.

"Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen" (Hebrew 11:1). This means that when you hope by faith for the things you have not received and accomplished, they will be given to you. If you look forward to something with fleshly faith, nothing can be seen. But when you look with spiritual faith, you can see the evidence of your faith. When Moses saw with the eyes of spiritual faith and obeyed God's word, the Red Sea was divided (Exodus 14:21). In case of Joshua and Israelites, when they also saw with the eyes of spiritual faith and obeyed God's word by marching around the city of Jericho and shouting on the 7th day, the walls of the city fell down (Joshua 7).

You understand by faith that God made the heavens and earth from nothing by the word of God (Hebrew 11:3). So, when you ask your spiritual Father the Almighty God by faith, then whatever you pray for can be received. Even this fact can be understood and believed only with spiritual faith.

3. How Can You Have Spiritual Faith?

First, you have to demolish all thoughts and theories that hinder you from having spiritual faith.

Not all your knowledge, theories, ways of thinking and values are right. Only the word of God is the everlasting truth. If you insist on your own knowledge and theories being right, you can neither accept the word of God nor have spiritual faith. If the things that you learned from the world do not agree with God's word, then you have to destroy those thoughts and theories completely (2 Corinthians 10:5; Romans 8:7).

Secondly, you have to hear and learn the word of God diligently, and then practice it.

If you fill your heart with the truth, the untruth that is in opposition to the truth will go out from you and you will have a clean heart. To the extent that you hear and learn the word of God diligently and practice it God gives you greater spiritual faith (Romans 10:17). As it is written in 1 John 3:21, 22, if your heart does not condemn you, then you can have confidence before God; and whatever you ask, you can receive from Him.

When you hear the Word, you must first keep it as knowledge and then begin to change it into spiritual faith by obeying the word. Just because you can memorize a musical score for a piano performance does not mean that you can play the piano well. You have to practice playing the piano. It is the same with God's word. No matter how much you read and hear God's word, it is of no use if you do not put it into action.

Even though you try to obey, there are times when you cannot immediately obey. Then, you have to pray fervently and receive the strength to obey.

If you cannot obey even with prayers, you can offer vowed prayers, night prayers, or even fasting to receive the strength. If you seek God's grace and power from your true heart, God definitely gives you the strength that enables you to obey. After you experience these blessings, you can obey even greater things. Through this process your spiritual faith grows and it reaches the full measure. You can completely obey anything even though God commands you to do something impossible by men's thought.

Once you gain spiritual faith by practicing the word, blessings come on you as God promised. Your soul will be prosperous, you will be healthy, and the desires of your heart will be answered.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

I pray in the name of the Lord that you may receive answers to whatever you ask on this earth and also enter into New Jerusalem, the most glorious heavenly dwelling places in the future! ✝

Cerebral Infarction and Depression Healed through Handkerchief Prayer

I couldn't use my left part of my body properly with cerebral infarction. The doctor said 80% of the blood vessels in the brain were blocked. I had to take painkillers and depended on drinking and smoking to relieve the pain that even made me want to commit suicide.

On January 16th 2008, it was my birthday, but I felt depressed and suffered from pain as usual. Looking at my children, who were preparing the cake and wine, I thought, "I shouldn't live like this any longer; I am such a big burden to my family." The following day I went to hospital for a medical checkup. The doctor said that if the situation got worse and I might not be able to work anymore. When I said that "Sooner or later I would die," my daughter looked so shocked.

I was passing by Mongolia Manmin Church on our way back home. My daughter paused and said, "I hear a beautiful hymn song! Why don't we go inside?" I went in and listened to the hymn songs. I was touched by the melody of the songs and it gave me the assurance of the existence of God who loves me.

Missionary Batzorig, who is ministering Mongolia Manmin Church, gave me a Bible and "Spring of Wisdom" which is a collection of Dr. Jaerock Lee's columns and I was deeply touched while reading them.

Interview | Costa Rica Ambassador in South Korea, Fernando Borbon

Ambassador of Jesus Christ Filled with God's Grace

How did you first meet the Lord?

Back 24 years ago, I could find no hope in my life. I had financial and family problems as well as personal health problems. The doctor diagnosed me with meningitis, which is incurable. It was such a desperate moment. I constantly had to take medication and my work efficiency and personality got worse day by day.

But when I was invited to the church by one of my friends, I heard God can solve all the problems. I quit drinking and smoking and relied on God. And God healed me of meningitis.

How did you come to know about Manmin Central Church?

I heard about Manmin Central Church from my friend Mr. Manuel Montes, President of Radio Messiahs in El Salvador. He recommended that I go to this church while I was working in Korea. On October 2, 2007, I came to Korea and visited Manmin Central Church. After a few days I was healed of cartilage pain by the prayer of Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee. Also my eyesight that had worsened to the point I was unable to see well, recovered. The doctor said I needed immediate surgery on my eyes, but I prayed spraying the Muan Sweet Water onto my eyes instead. Eventually I recovered my eyesight.

What are your plans as an Ambassador of the Lord?

I wanted to meet faithful Christians here in Korea where many souls are returning to the Lord. I also wished that I could lead my life of faith here in this church that is filled with Holy Spirit and God's dignity. I am learning many things about faith through Dr. Jaerock Lee. Up until this time, as a pastor and

Manmin Ministry Helped Me Bear More Fruit in My Life

Celia Pataroyo

I listen to sermons of Dr. Jaerock Lee on Sundays through Enlace TV. And by his prayer for the sick following each sermon, the triglycerides and cholesterol in my body had reduced and anxiety was gone.

And I am touched by the hymn songs of the choirs of Manmin Central Church and the performances by Nissi Orchestra and Special Song choruses and dance teams.

Also, I read 'Manmin News' and Dr. Lee's testimonial book 'Tasting Eternal Life before Death' and was so happy and gave thanks to God for appointing His true servant on the other side of the earth.

'The Message of the Cross' made me realize who I am and clearly understand the meaning of Jesus' crucifixion. And through the book 'Heaven I' I came to know the meanings of the Heaven of heavens and the third Heaven that are written about in the Bible. Dr. Lee's books, 'Manmin News' and Manmin TV programs broadcast on En Lace TV have let me learn many things and let me grow in my faith. I appreciate for all these things and pray God will bless Manmin Central church.

I sincerely hope that I will learn more about Dr. Jaerock Lee and Manmin Ministry and spread the will of God.
