

I am President of Korean Chives Research Center, located in Yangju City, Gyeong-gi Province. From 10 years ago I have currently researched for Korean chives and dreamed of environment-friendly agricultural products business because it was considered to bring high profits and good health to its customers.

In October of 2006, the things seemed to go well when I received the confirmation certificate from the government for environment-friendly agricultural products. But it was temporal joy. I had sequentially failed in my a few businesses—green peppers' processing industry, chives' juice processing industry, and cyber agricultural tools and chemicals open market, and then fell into predicament. Finally I was classified as a defaulter by two banks.

Repenting of My Faults in the Failures and Walking the Right Path

In December of 2008, I ran out of my business funds and had severer difficulty in making a living, and so my family including my parents and my friends turned their back from me. Ashamed of seeing my family and afraid of their cold eyes, I left home and lived in a metal container beside the brook near my house. In a day a representative of a company was degraded into a jobless and homeless man. I said to myself, "I've been lowered to the bottom. Now everything that will happen to me is improvement" and began to meditate on the cause of the former failures.

In praying I found many wrongdoings I have committed in my businesses—getting involved in an improper way with a desire to gain a big amount of money, enlarging the scope of my business exceedingly, disobeying the Word of God, and so on. While attending church, I had committed many wrongdoings that way.

I thoroughly repented of them and tried my best to correct the manner of my Christian life. I had the assurance that if I walk the right way God would help me and lead me to make a success in my business again, so that I diligently asked for the help of God in prayer attending various worship services and Daniel Prayer Meeting.

In May of 2009, my chives fields were introduced at the program "Morning Wide" of SBS (Seoul Broadcasting System) and became known to the whole country. In the early summer of that year, the Pureun Customers' Cooperative Corporation that used to be my former long-term client called me and ordered nutrient chives. At that time I was expecting to succeed in business and was offered to do it again with their promise to support for me.

The Number of Order Increased after Receiving the Prayer from Dr. Jaerock Lee

In August of 2009, I came to Dr. Jaerock Lee and repented that I had not followed the right way, and received his prayer for blessing. Afterwards blessing has continued.

From the year of 2010 I made a contract with the Pureun Customers' Cooperative Corporation for the provision of green agricultural products, and the Yangju City supported me by sending two interns and my a few acquaintances helped me in many ways. On April 17, 2010, the first fruit of my business came forth and I gained very high profits.

The nutrient chives I have raised are being provided to Shinsegae Department Store, and making contracts with Pulmuone Co. Ltd., Nong Hyup (National Agricultural Cooperative Federation), Lotte Department Store, Hansalim Co. is on the going.

In last June, the Yangju City held a special event for the best agricultural products sales. I attended the event and Minister Taepyeong Chang, Ministry for Food, Agriculture, Forestry, and Fisheries dropped at my corner and tasted a piece of chives-processing food and praised it sincerely. Thus, God has been guiding me to the best way step by step as my soul has been prosperous.

"I'm Nicknamed 'a Best Painter' by the Grace of the Lord"

Jeonju Manmin Church,
Women's Department of Korea Artists' Association

In November of 2007, Jeonju Manmin Church completed constructing a new sanctuary and was preparing to enter there. Since I was a painter, I was asked to paint a picture of the heavenly king on the ground of the fountain in the front courtyard of the sanctuary. I designed its drawings onto it with joy for a couple of hours and at 6:00 PM returned home for dinner. Two hours later a shower of rain poured down, and I was reminded of the drawing I had made. I thought the drawing drawn with chalk had been already washed away. Then, I should have made such a drawing for a few hours again and then painted over it. But in reality we had little time in preparation for the entrance worship service. I hurriedly ran to the church to examine the drawing. When I entered the church, I found rainwater was forming small pools here and there.

But to my surprise, the drawing had not been blotted out at all and remained as it had been drawn. I touched the ground of the fountain and I was more surprised because there was no water on the ground at all but I felt dust from the ground. It reminded me of that sign that Gideon had experienced.

After experiencing this miracle, I received answer to my prayer for an atelier—the atelier that is near to my home and has big window through which I can look around beautiful outdoor scenery. I gave this testimony to Dr. Jaerock Lee and he prayed for my painting work.

In Judges 6, when Gideon asked God to let there be dew on a fleece of wool on the threshing floor but all the ground be dry, it was done, while when he asked God to let the fleece be dry, and let there be dew on all the ground it was done the same way. And many members of Jeonju Manmin Church experienced the same biblical miracle and gave glory to God.

Every time I draw and paint pictures, I lay my hand on the canvas and receive Dr. Jaerock Lee's prayer recorded on the phone. And I put watercolor into Muan Sweet Water and paint the picture with that watercolor mixed with Muan Sweet Water. Whenever I drew and painted the pictures, the Lord inspired my heart and emotion with the Holy Spirit and I was awarded the prizes at the paintings' contests—including Asia Art Exhibition and Chunhyang Art Exhibition. My fellow painters and artists nicknamed me as a "best painter."

Moreover, since I painted water-colored pictures with detailed drawings, I felt tired in my eyes and objects seemed blurred. So when I read books, I wore high degree of glasses. On June 2, I experienced something amazing. Harboring a heart desire for recovery of eyesight, I looked into the eyes of Dr. Jaerock Lee, and I felt something cool entering my eyes and my eyes became clear. After that all symptoms of my eyes disappeared and I could see small alphabets. I give all thanks and glory to God.

"Real Blessing Came Upon Us!"
One-day Blessing Crusade with Dr. Jaerock Lee Held in Kwangju City

The Main Sanctuary and the courtyards of Kwangju Manmin Church were crowded with 1,800 people. They were touched by Dr. Lee's message and many sick people were healed in spirit and body by his prayer

Kwangju Manmin Church, which has been spearheading in evangelizing the Honam Region in the Southern Area of Korea, held "One-day Blessing Crusade with Dr. Jaerock Lee."

The One-day Blessing Crusade was kicked off at 7:30 PM on June 29, and Pastor Hyung-ryul Park introduced the speaker Dr. Jaerock Lee, saying, "Rev. Dr. Jaerock Lee founded Manmin Church with 13 members in 1982, and has awakened countless souls around the world with the anointed messages and manifestations of God's power, and as of 2010 his church has 9,000 branch and associative churches all over the world."

Dr. Jaerock Lee delivered the message titled with "The Early Church" and explained, "In the time of the early church, many signs and wonders took place through the Lord's apostles, and believers had all things in common, shared all possessions they had with one another, came together at the temple of God every day, and prayed and broke the bread of life in unity. They praised God and people commended them and then God increased the number of those who were saved." And he urged the believers of Kwangju Manmin Church to "imitate the good example of the early church and glorify God."

Through the message, Dr. Lee presented to many pastors and church leaders what kind of church is really pleasing to God and clearly explained how to cultivate such a church. Dr. Lee also assured newcomers that anyone who accepts Jesus Christ as his Savior and lives according to the Word of God can be healed of any kind of diseases and infirmities and receive all blessings in finance, health, and home.

This One-day Blessing Crusade was attended by 1,800 people, and among them, 800 sick people applied at the reception desk. After preaching, Dr. Lee prayed for the sick from the podium, and many people testified to their healing of diseases, including herniated spinal disc, cataract, hyperhidrosis (excessive sweating), degenerative arthritis, poor eyesight, urinary incontinence, emphysema, gastritis, diabetes, migraine, and so on. Many testimonies flooded in the reception desk.

Among those testimonies, there was a case where a woman had been healed on the way to Kwangju Manmin Church. Deaconess Sonoko Kumakai who attends Ida Manmin Church in Japan had suffered from terminal ovarian cancer and couldn't walk without a wheelchair. A Person of Spirit

"God is spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth." (John 4:24)

Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee

God is spirit, so He can see everything, including our deeds, words, thoughts, and even our minds and the things hidden deep in our hearts. God is love and goodness itself, so that He does not see our appearances but accepts the good and sweet fragrance of our hearts. If we cause the other to have ill-feelings with our evil words and actions and then sing praise to God in beautiful garments and with smile, it is never pleasing to God.

Now let's say about attending the worship service. When we worship God in truth and spirit and offer the service by the grace of God and in the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, God is pleased. It also applies in every other field, including praying, evangelizing, taking care of new believers, and volunteering at the church. God really wants His children to become men of spirit. As much as we become men of spirit or men of whole spirit, we can communicate with God more clearly, destroy the works of the devil, bear more fruits in accomplishing God's kingdom and dwell in the greater glory in the kingdom of Heaven. What do we have to do in order to become a man of spirit?

First of all, we have to be careful about our words.

One of the standards to discern whether or not we are a man of spirit who can please God is to examine how many words of truth we say. Our words come from our hearts, so if we speak evil words, it means our heart is evil and unclean (James 3:8-11). In that sense, our words and actions that come from our evil heart can never become sweet fragrance to God even if we speak beautiful words and act in a beautiful appearance.

Let's say there is a cup of clean water. What do you feel if the water has been brought from inside the toilet? Some people dislike even touching the water. In the same way, no matter how beautiful one may look in appearance, his evil words and evil heart can never please God at all.

That's why we should never speak out the words of gossiping, judging and condemning the other, complaining against God, letting the other stumble, imitating the trends of the world, cheating and lying in a sly manner, and funny jokes. We should say only beautiful, good and sweet words of planting faith into the other's heart and building up edification.

Second, we should have spiritual love.

What would you feel if a myna says to you, "I love you. You are really beautiful!"? Could you feel the bird's sincere heart? Do you think you can be touched by it? But if your beloved son confesses his true love before you, you will be impressed and pleased. It is the same when we sing praises to God. If we praise God with true love for God in our heart, God can be moved. And if we really love God, we should show the proofs of our love for Him.

We have to give thanks for His grace all the time and must be able to sacrifice everything we have for the kingdom of God.

A person who loves God from the bottom of his heart shows the proofs in his prayer. He earnestly prays for the kingdom and righteousness of God with tears and all his strength. He loves God first of all and loves his neighbors as himself. He does everything with love, and serves others and sacrifices himself at his home, group and working place with love. He gives a better choice to the other, rejoices in good things of others and tries his best to comfort and encourage those who are in difficulties.

Third, we should pray earnestly and fervently.

Fervent prayer does not mean to pray loudly for a long time. When we pray with our inner hearts and cry out earnestly, our mighty voice can be sounded. We have to pray with detailed prayer titles and be moved in the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. If we really believe the almighty God is listening to our prayer, we should pray from the heart. Then, we can be inspired by the Holy Spirit and pray fervently. Through such fervent prayer, we can change in spirit realizing how much we have cast off evils and which level of goodness we have reached.

Many believers are bound up with their self-righteousness and frameworks and stay at the same level of faith and spirit because they do not offer fervent prayers to God. But they think they are leading a good Christian life. They do not commit works of the flesh, the sins revealed in action, so they think that they will be able to enter the best place in the kingdom of Heaven. They fail to discover themselves even if they are following the lust of the flesh, hurting the other's heart, breaking peace, and seeking their own benefits. They think they belong to goodness because they can outwardly smile at the other who is not in agreement with them even if they are quick-tempered and have ill feelings against him or her. Some believers follow the trends of the world but they say they need them in order to fulfill their duties more effectively.

But if we are inspired by and filled with the Holy Spirit through fervent prayers, we can discover ourselves like looking at us in a mirror, cast away even a slightest form of evil and turn into a man of spirit soon.

The Fruit of the Spirit, a Real Signpost for a Christian's True Liberty

There Is No Law Against Such Things

God sent His only begotten Son Jesus to this earth and liberated all men from the curse of the Law through His redemptive love. Through Jesus' crucifixion and death for mankind, the door was opened for anyone to reach salvation by faith. When we accept Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit comes into our heart, and when we are guided by the Holy Spirit, we not only bear the nine fruits of the Holy Spirit but enjoy liberty in the truth.

Dr. Jaerock Lee's latest publication, There Is No Law Against Such Things is a compilation of his messages on the nine fruits of the Holy Spirit as recorded in Galatians 5:22-23. This book consists of 11 chapters, and depicts the definition of each fruit of the Holy Spirit—love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control, and spiritual meanings embedded in them.

The word of the nine fruits of the Holy Spirit is considered as the milestone to the journey of faith along with the words of spiritual love recorded in 1 Corinthians 13 and the Beatitudes in Matthew 5, with which we can measure how much we have accomplished the heart of God.

New

The readers will be inspired by the Holy Spirit, feel deep love of God and experience spiritual grace and change. And to the extent that they will bear the fruits of the Holy Spirit, their inner person will be renewed and they will soar into the holy city of the New Jerusalem more powerfully.

Special Grace Pastor Grace Lee Has Experienced at Nepal Manmin Mission Center

A Violent Rushing Wind of the Holy Spirit Sweeps Across Nepal

On May 31, Pastor Grace Lee, who has been serving the Lord as a missionary in Nepal, visited Korea. The overwhelming majority in Nepal follow Hinduism and there is the birthplace of Siddhartha Gautama in it. The Nepal religiosity is as follows: 80.65% of the population believes in Hinduism, 10.7% Buddhism, 4.2% Islam, 0.5% Christianity, and others. Pastor Grace Lee is serving at Nepal Manmin Mission Center spreading the gospel and trying her best to save many Nepalese souls with the heart of Jesus Christ. This visit was paid with her coworkers, Elder Bhabindra Rai and his wife, and on June 23 she returned to Nepal. She confessed she had never felt burdensome or difficult in her ministry in Nepal but been filled with joy and many special graces of God.

Question 1:

"I heard you had a dream to help the poor and the needy even before you came to believe in the Lord. What caused you to go to Nepal as a missionary?"

Even before I came to know the Lord, I had a dream of helping those who are poor and needy but live in a remote place. Meanwhile I began to attend a Presbyterian church because of my personal afflictions.

Afterwards my elder sister guided me to Manmin Central Church and I was so touched at Friday all-night service. In December of 1999, I registered as a regular member of Manmin Central Church and later heard about MMTC (Manmin Missionary Training Center). I served MMTC as a managing staff and coordinated two mission trips to Nepal for a few years. But no one came forth to go to Nepal as a missionary. My heart became upset and distressed. From that time I prayed to be commissioned as a missionary to Nepal and my heart became more fervent for missionary works. At last in November of 2005, I was commissioned to Nepal.

Question 2:

It's not easy to do ministry in a nation where Christianity is less than 1% of the population. How could you overcome difficulties with faith?

Until a few years ago Nepal was the only kingdom of Hinduism and monarchy, so the spreading of the gospel was strictly prohibited therein.

When I first fled to Nepal in 2002, I found secret policemen were watching over the gathering of 5 persons or the above. Spreading the gospel seemed impossible to me. But when I came back to Korea, the Holy Spirit strongly moved my heart and urged me to prepare for every detail to be sent to Nepal as a missionary.

On November 27, 2005, I boarded on the plane to Katmandu, the capital city of Nepal. The social problem and unrest had worsened when I arrived. Apart from spreading the gospel, opening doors or windows and going out to the streets were even prohibited.

The summer retreat Manmin's branch churches in Nepal attended in the August of 2009

Every week I wrote a letter explaining about Nepal's political and social situations to Senior Pastor and asked him to pray. Through his prayer the social and political situation began to change. In 2006, a decade-long People's Revolution by the Communist Party of Nepal (Maoist) along with several weeks of mass protests by all major political parties of Nepal culminated in a peace accord, and the ensuing elections for the constituent assembly voted overwhelmingly in favor of the abolition of monarchy and the establishment of a federal democratic republic in May 28, 2008.

Nepal Manmin Mission Center is attending the worship service of Manmin Central Church

According to this great shift in Nepal, the liberty of religion was given and spreading the gospel was allowed. The Communist Party of Nepal (Maoist) won the largest number of seats in the Constituent Assembly election held on April 10, 2008, and formed a coalition government which included most of the parties. Thus, political tensions and consequent power-sharing battles continued in Nepal. I left everything to God and sent a prayer request to Senior Pastor. Whenever he prayed, God answered transcending time and space and protected me in His ways.

Pastor Grace Lee prayed for the sick with the handkerchief of power and Nepalese members testified to their healing

Question 3:

Could you tell us about the ministries you are doing at Nepal Manmin Mission Center?

The ministry of Manmin in Nepal began in 2000 when Pastor Taesik Gil ministering to Daejeon Manmin Church conducted the Pastors' Seminar, and in 2002 MMTC's mission trip was held there.

And in 2005 and 2006, handkerchief healing crusades and pastors' seminars were held by Pastor Hyunkwon Choo and Pastor Mikyung Lee, and since then the holiness gospel and

In May of 2009, the Maoist-led government was toppled and another coalition government with all major political parties barring the Maoists was formed. General strike broke out over the whole land and all governmental offices and shops were closed, and public transportations were stopped. Nepal Manmin Mission Center was in front of the demonstration square. Whenever a myriad of Maoists from the countryside gathered at the square, they forcefully occupied many churches for their sleep. They had the exact knowledge of the number and location and pastors of the churches.

But to our amazement, Nepal Manmin Mission Center was completely protected from their forceful invasion in the protection of God. On Friday, May 7, many Maoists were demonstrating at the square, and I was scheduled to hold handkerchief healing meetings and to lead 3-church joint summer retreat from two days later. The schedule could not be confirmed because of that demonstration.

I immediately sent my prayer request to Dr. Jaerock Lee and received his time-and-space-transcending prayer during the Friday all-night service. A few minutes later I received a phone letter from a pastor of our branch church.

This amazing work of God caused all pastors and believers of the 3 branch churches to become united in faith and prepare and attend the summer retreat and handkerchief healing meeting with a longing heart. As a result, since the founding of Nepal Manmin Mission Center, the most people gathered and many people were healed and gave glory to God.

Katmandu is located in the height of 2,000 meters at the sea level, so if clouds begin to form, rain comes instantly. During the summer retreat, dark clouds began gathering and it started raining, too. I lifted up the handkerchief Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee had prayed on and prayed with a few pastors and many believers, and a little while later the clouds disappeared and rain stopped. We greatly rejoiced and glorified the holy name of God.

Last year I once visited the western areas of Nepal including Gorka and Tumi to hold handkerchief healing meetings and pastors' seminars. In the middle of going up to such a mountainous area, we had to get off the bus and walk up the mountain. Robust men did not only take missionary materials but also a female pastor and I carried 20 books of The Message of the Cross and thousands of copies of Manmin News and many copies of DVD "The Power of God" and mounted the lofty place for 8 hours. None of us felt it heavy. In this way, we were happy because God gave us strength and power to overcome all difficulties.

Pastor Grace Lee and a few pastors on the way to mountainous areas—Gorka and Tumi

God's powerful works have spread to many corners of the land of Nepal.

As of 2010, the congregation of Nepal Manmin Mission Center is 100 members, and we have 39 branch churches and 5 associative churches. One of the main ministerial strategies of Nepal Manmin Mission Center is the broadcasting ministry via GCN-Manmin TV. We are attending the worship service of Manmin Central Church that is broadcast live on GCN-Manmin TV via the satellite ThaiCom5. The church members are experiencing changes in their spiritual lives listening to the messages of Dr. Jaerock Lee and receiving healing and blessing through his prayer, in which a mighty rushing wind of the Holy Spirit is sweeping across the land of Nepal.
