

In December, 1997, I was working as a guide for trainers and trainees of Daehan Investment Trust. One of them said to me, "The word of life has been proclaimed and the works of healing have taken place in Manmin Central Church."

Then, my wife and I attended Friday All-night Service of Manmin Central Church. She received Dr. Jaerock Lee's prayer for the sick after listening to his message. Through his prayer, she was healed of her postnatal pain.

I also received healing of chronic herniated lumbar disc after receiving his prayer in May 1998. Through Dr. Lee's sermons, such as Genesis Lectures or Revelation Lectures, I came to lead a truly happy Christian life. I came to understand the deep meanings of the Bible verses that had been difficult to understand before. I also witnessed countless signs, wonders, and powerful works.

Commissioned as a missionary for the people in Thailand

In 2007, I heard a testimony of a Thai believer who said he had received a lot of grace through GCN (Global Christian Network). I felt my heart was burning because I had been interested in the ministry in Thailand and I began to arm myself with the holiness gospel with prayer.

I took part in the vision trip of MMTCC (Manmin Missionary Training Center of Manmin Central Church) in 2009. Then, I applied for the position of a missionary in Thailand. I was finally commissioned to Thailand and helped the ministry of Chai Prakan Manmin Church that was the first branch church of Manmin Central Church in Thailand. I got to know local pastors there and met a revivalist and came to have many associative churches.

Laying a firm foundation for the missionary works through 'Power of God VI' DVD, Manmin News, and GCN

Missionary Jaewon Lee, his wife Missionary Soonok Lee, and their three sons

"Since God's Powerful Works Accompany Me, I Find My Missionary Works Easy!"

Missionary Jaewon Lee (Chiang Rai Manmin Church in Thailand)

The DVD entitled 'Power of God VI', Manmin News, and GCN programs have laid a firm foundation for my ministry. I have visited many churches with my laptop computer and projector to show the video presentation 'Power of God VI'. I also published Manmin News in Thai and sent it to all churches in Thailand. As a result, I have received many phone calls from local pastors. I came to meet Pastor Nongnuk (Eden Gold Church). The ministry with him served as a stepping stone to perform greater mission works.

Pastor Sungchil Lee (Assistant Pastor of Manmin Central Church) led the handkerchief healing meeting (Acts 19:11-12) in November 2010. Through the meeting many churches registered as branch churches of Manmin Central Church. Pastor Nongnuk had a GCN satellite receiver installed at home after having his church register as a branch church of Manmin. Since then, he has enjoyed Manmin's praises, sermons, and testimonies everyday through its programs. He has borne so much fruit by receiving the help of the Holy Spirit in Daniel Prayer Meeting even though he doesn't know Korean.

Also, Sister Rosarine from Northern Thailand, who had been on the doorstep of death due to blood poisoning, revived! Pastor Nongnuk called her and had her receive Dr. Lee's prayer for the sick broadcast on GCN. Although GCN programs are broadcast only in Korean and English, the works of healing took place transcending languages.

After the founding service of Chiang Rai Manmin Church

Pastor Sungchil Lee led 'Chiang Dao Handkerchief Healing Meeting in February 2011. Four tribes from seven towns attended. In the Buddhist country, it was such a victory as we Christians achieved with the help of the local Church will be the best example among Thai churches since it possesses the word of life and the power of God."

He even helped us do our ministry through his radio station. He is working for CRU Radio which covers the border areas of Myanmar and Laos as well as Chiang Rai. Dr. Lee's sermon 'The Message of the Cross', Manmin Praise, and prayer for the sick are aired every Saturday.

Since Manmin Mission Center was incorporated

In May 2011, we hosted a meeting in the Juvenile Detention Center, Bangkok. Pastor Taesik Gil and his mission team sent for meetings in Pakistan and Sri Lanka stopped in Bangkok at the right time. Pastor Gil delivered the message and the performance team gave a special performance.

The Juvenile Detention Center gave positive assistance for the meeting. Juvenile Prison Governor of the Ministry of Justice, members of a political party, and members of rehabilitation committee also came to attend. The meeting was quite successful and bore much fruit.

It was a good opportunity for me to make Dr. Lee's ministry known to high-ranking officials who belong to the Ministry of Justice in Thailand. I showed them the video presentation that contains the news about Rev. Dr. Jaerock Lee receiving President's Volunteer Service Award from the U.S. President Barack Obama, which impressed them. My wife and I were appointed as members of the rehabilitation center which belongs to the Ministry of Justice since our contribution was recognized through the meeting.

Moreover, everything related to the mission center's incorporation went so well. It is usually supposed to take a year, but it only took three months. Through this, we came to gain a foothold to make another leap in the missionary works. Hallelujah!

The Fiery Works of the Holy Spirit Unfolded in Asia!

More than a half of the world's population, which that is reaching 6.9 billion, lives in Asia and the population is comprised of the four major religions of Buddhism, Christianity, Hindu and Islam!

The fruit of the holiness gospel has been borne through the ministry of Manmin in Asia. A handkerchief healing meeting with Pastor Grace Lee was held in East Java, Nepal on September 8th and 9th, which made the ministry of Manmin known to many pastors from 16 states of India and Bangladesh.

gave glory to God. (Acts 19:11-12)

The handkerchief healing meetings with Pastor Heesun Lee were held in Osaka, Maizuru, Kyoto, and Nagoya in Japan beginning this upcoming September 16. Also, the Associative Pastors' Seminar with Pastors Joseph Han and John Kim was hosted by Manmin Mission Center in Delhi on September 8th and 9th, which made the ministry of Manmin known to many pastors from 16 states of India and Bangladesh.

The holiness gospel and the power of God have been spread all over Asia through TV broadcasters such as THAICOM5, NSS6 satellite, cable TV of the Philippines, Arul Vakku GCN TV of India, and Isaac TV of Pakistan; and through the multi-lingual publication and distribution of Manmin News and Dr. Jaerock Lee's books.

Four of Dr. Jaerock Lee's united crusades laid the foundation for such an active ministry: Japan-Nagoya Miracle Convention 2000, the Pakistan United Crusade 2000, the Philippine United Crusade 2001 and the India Miracle Healing Prayer Festival 2002.

One of the crusades in particular, the 2002 India Miracle Healing Prayer Festival, was conducted in Marina Beach, Chennai, India and was attended by a total of more than 3 million people. In this crusade, astonishing works took place: the blind came to see, the deaf hear, the lame throw away walking crutches and wheelchairs and walk. Some people were even healed of AIDS. Countless people were converted to Christianity. This crusade was broadcast live to the whole India and neighboring countries.

One who had been in coma revived through the handkerchief prayer

Sister Lotchana Poongsook who had been in coma due to a car accident in Myanmar was taken to the hospital in Chiang Rai, Thailand across the border. Missionary Jaewon Lee took the telephone message about her. When he prayed for her with the handkerchief of power she had already been unconscious for ten days. But as recorded in Acts 19:11-12, she then came around and held his hand, and she came to speak and move well.

The family evangelization was accomplished through Dr. Lee's book The Message of the Cross Sister Wirai Prita who had been in trouble and about to commit suicide changed through Dr. Lee's book The Message of the Cross. Even her husband who had worshipped idols ardently accepted the Lord and he threw away 1,500 idols all at once. Since then, they have received abundant blessings.

When the apostles were working in Philadelphia, it was a small city with approximately 1,000 people. It was a well-known grape-producing center. The people enjoyed taking pleasure in wine and dancing as they worshipped Dionysus, the Greek mythological god of wine.

Philadelphia was also a gateway city that connected Sardis, Pergamum, Troy, and Rome. Among the seven churches, the Church of Philadelphia was the only church that received only commendations from the Lord. It is a good example to many churches today.

1. The Lord is Holy and True

The Lord who is speaking to the Church of Philadelphia and who has the key of David, is holy and true. Here, 'holy' means that He is above all men, without any spot or blemish, and not stained by sin, and gives glory to God by living only by the word of God. Originally, the term 'holy' could not be used for any human being. It is because only God is holy and true.

But, if a man casts away every form of evil and he comes to resemble God who is holy, then the term 'holy' can be used to express it. (1 Peter 1:16) Jesus says in John 10:34-35, "Has it not been written in your Law, 'I said, you are gods'? If he called them gods, to whom the word of God came, (and the Scripture cannot be broken)." Here, those 'whom the word of God came to' refer to those who keep the word of truth and live by the word. It means that God considers those who keep and live by the word to be as gods.

It doesn't mean that they are truly at the level of God just because God considers them as gods. It means that God considers them to be complete children of God. He considers them to be those who are men of spirit, and men of the truth. 1 Peter 1:16 reads, "Because it is written, 'You shall be holy, for I am holy.'" As spoken, it is the will of God for us to become holy as He is holy.

Next, 'true' means 'without falsehood or untruth.' Not changing, not swaying to the right or left, and not being cunning are examples of attributes that are 'true.' We can be given faith; we can experience God's power; and the word of God can be living and active in us only when we are true. That's because the word of God itself is the truth. On the other hand, when we are not true, then we may have doubt and we may be tempted by untruth. We can never understand the true heart, either (1 Corinthians 2:13).

2. ...He, who opens and no one will shut, and who shuts and no one opens, says this...

God gave the key that can open any door to blessings to David so that he could enjoy all kinds of blessings. It was possible because David was a man after God's heart. David, however, had to undergo severe trials before he became qualified to receive the key. To conceal the fact that he slept with the wife of his subject Uriah and she became pregnant, David arranged for the death of Uriah. This was the beginning of his trials.

In 2 Samuel Chapter 11 the Bible tells us in detail how faithful Uriah was and how much he loved his country and the people. David committed such an evil when he arranged for the death of his faithful subordinate at the hands of the enemies.

But to commit this sin did mean that David was a truly evil person. David, in fact, loved God more than anybody else. But, it was because he had such great power and authority as a king that the deep root of evil in his nature was able to come out as such a grave sin.

No matter how small the evil in us appears to be, that evil can come out as a grave sin when the environment or conditions exist that can stimulate the form of evil that still remains in us. Since God knew this, He led David to fully find the nature of his true being and become perfectly sanctified by allowing for him go through trials.

So even during the severe trials, David left everything in God's hands. Because of the rebellion of his own son, Absalom, King David had to hurriedly flee. Even when an ordinary man cursed at him, David didn't punish him. But rather he humbled himself. It was very different from his attitude before which had caused the death of the innocent Uriah with the authority of a king.

In other words, David could receive the key to open the door to great blessings only after he changed into a man who was proper before God. Through the genealogy of David, Jesus, Savior of all humanity, was born to open the way of salvation.

The key of David is not given to just a few chosen people. Anyone who loves God, resembles the Lord, and accomplishes the holiness and the truth can receive it. To the extent that we fulfill the qualifications that God wants us to have, the door to the blessings of health, finance, fame, and authority will be opened and finally, the key to open the door to the biggest blessing will also be given; the door to New Jerusalem.

This 'key of David' is actually the key of all blessings. Nobody can stop the blessings that the Lord gives. The Lord who has the key to all blessings is He "who opens and no one will shut, and who shuts and no one opens."

In particular, as recorded in Acts 4:12, the door of salvation can be opened only in the name of Jesus Christ and no one can shut the door. not even the enemy devil and Satan can shut it. The Lord opens and shuts everything according to the will of God. He precisely accomplishes all things in the providence of God without making the slightest error.

3. I have put before you an open door which no one can shut.

Before He gave His commendation to the Church of Philadelphia, the Lord gave them the promise that He would bless them. More specifically He said, "Behold, I have put before you an open door which no one can shut." Once the Lord opens the door to blessing, no man, no angel, nor the enemy devil and Satan can close it. This is the word of promise that He will be with us through the authority and power of God.

Peter confessed before Jesus, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God" as recorded in Matthew 16:16. Jesus gave him a great blessing in Matthew 16:18-19 saying, "I also say to you that you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build My church; and the gates of Hades will not overpower it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; and whatever you bind on earth shall have been bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall have been loosed in heaven." Thus, there is great authority contained in His word saying, "I have put before you an open door which no one can shut." It is the authority given to Peter that whatever he bound on earth would be bound in heaven and whatever he loosed on earth would be loosed in heaven.

But this word of blessing is not only for the Church of Philadelphia, but it is to anyone or any church that is acknowledged by the Lord. Since the people and the church that God Himself chooses and guides are in the providence of God, once a door is opened by the Lord, no one can shut it in any situation.

4. Because you have a little power, and have kept My word, and have not denied My name.

Why, then, could the Church of Philadelphia receive such a great blessing? This is because they had kept the word of the Lord even with a little power and had not denied His name. Here, 'because you have a little power, and have kept My word' carries two meanings.

First, 'a little power' refers to a state where we have the faith as small as a mustard seed, right after we accept the Lord. However, such a small mustard seed grows up to become a huge tree, and many birds come and rest on its branches. Likewise, our faith grows up to become great faith as we progress in our Christian lives.

From the moment they had a little power, in other words, since when they had a small measure of faith, the Church in Philadelphia kept the word of God and grew up in their faith. In fact, it is not easy in the beginning of a Christian life to keep the word of God with such a little power. Because they have little strength to overcome the world, even though they know what the truth is, it is difficult to put it into practice in their lives.

For example, they listen to a message telling them that they should get rid of hot-temper. So, they make such a decision as they will live according to the word. But, when they encounter an incident that upsets them, they just get angry because they have only a little of the power. However, even if they have just a little power, when they truly put the word in their heart, and fervently pray, they can overcome it with the help of the Holy Spirit.

The Church in Philadelphia had a little power, but they fervently prayed and kept the word so that their faith grew up quickly. They were able to become a church that could receive words of praise from the Lord.

Next, keeping the word of God with a little power means that, even though they actually had great power, they accomplished the will of God with humbleness as if they only had little power.

Let's examine this through the example of Jesus, our Lord. Jesus is originally one with God the Father. He is the one and only Son of God, and His power and authority are the same as the power and authority of God. But this Jesus took the flesh of a lowly human when He came down to this earth. He lived the same way as human beings lived. He had to suffer the same hunger, tiredness, coldness, and pains of the flesh that human beings suffer.

He accomplished the task of the Savior, not in the form of the majestic and glorious Son of God, but in the form of an ordinary man with a little power. Even though He had almighty power, He accomplished everything according to justice as a mere man with minimal and limited power.

Likewise, even though some of us may have a good heart and strong potential, God doesn't unconditionally give us great power from the beginning. God leads us step by step according to justice so that the little power that we have can mature to become great power.

The Church of Philadelphia received commendation for keeping the word of the Lord as well as not denying His name. Here, the expression 'denying His name' is not only physically denying His name and forsaking Him.

If God's will is known and a person does not live by His will, it is to deny the Lord's name in a broader sense. There are some who profess with their lips that they have faith. However, when they are faced with trials, they go back to the world without really even trying to follow His will.

If a person knows but keeps disobeying the will of God because the matters seem trivial, when he faces trial or tribulation he is unable to overcome it. Instead he grumbles and complains against God. He may even leave the church. He may think, "This is such an insignificant matter..." and he disobeys the truth. But in the end, he will eventually face a situation that results in betraying the Lord.

The Church in Philadelphia started with a little power that was a small measure of faith. But even as their faith was just growing, their deeds were sufficient to receive praise from the Lord. They didn't deny God even when they were faced with trials and tribulation, but they kept their faith and came to stand on the rock of faith more and more firmly.

In order for us to keep the word of the Lord, and not to deny the Lord's name with such 'a little power,' most importantly, we must not stop praying. We cannot cast off untruth and overcome darkness by our own strength and power alone. Since we can do it only by God's grace and strength, we have to receive the grace and strength through fervent prayers.

5. Today's case like the Church of Philadelphia

The message given to the Church of Philadelphia contains the characteristics of a church that God Himself has chosen and supervised. It is the church that He recognizes and guides. The church of today that is praised by the Lord like the Church of Philadelphia has a little power but will not compromise with the world. They will keep the word of God, and in any kind of persecutions or trials, they will endure until the end and overcome with love and faith.

This kind of church will receive the same blessings that were given to the Church of Philadelphia. Namely, they will have evidence of God's love for them, and they will show amazing works of God's power. God will open many doors of blessings including the door of spiritual authority to defeat and drive out the enemy devil and Satan. He will open the door of God's power to perform great wonders, signs, and extraordinary works. Through these doors, they can lead so many souls to the way of salvation. Also, when the doors of blessings for the church are being opened, to the extent that its members are qualified, they get closer to receiving the key to New Jerusalem.

Even if God has given the key to blessings, it is up to the individual believers and churches to open the door and enjoy the blessings inside the warehouse. Haggai 2:9 says, "'The latter glory of this house will be greater than the former,' says the LORD of hosts, 'and in this place I will give peace,' declares the LORD of hosts." As said, even if we have a little power, we should do our best in our positions so that we will be able to accomplish greater things than before to give glory.
