Download the Love of God in Dr. Jaerock Lee's Books

This awesome and powerful book, Heaven I, won my heart from the minute I opened it. I did not intend to read the book in a day and a half, but that is what happened. Dr. Jaerock Lee is an incredible man of God who truly has a strong and personal relationship with Him. I'm so grateful that God has allowed him to share the wonderful and much anticipated secrets of the majestic kingdom that awaits all its children! He does a marvelous job describing the Garden of Eden, the First, Second, and Third Heaven. Streets of gold, cloud automobiles, angels that serve the children of God in the Third Heaven.

The overview of the community facilities in the lower level heavens is excellent as well. My family and I have always wondered about what we will eat, that is if we actually still needed to eat; what we would wear; and of course, what are all of us going to be doing for eternity! All of these questions and more were answered in this book. If you want to peek into what Heaven is like, then don't hesitate to read this book! You will be blessed!

Janette's reviews in 'Goodreads' (www.goodreads.com)

As I read The Message of the Cross authored by Dr. Jaerock Lee, I came to know how sins come to us and understand the providence of the human cultivation through Jesus Christ and the role of Lucifer. I had previously preached messages on Heaven and Hell without clearly knowing about them, but I came to understand them well through Dr. Lee's books. (Jeannette Walls)

Pastor Aaron Kung from Chin Baptist Church in Australia

Dr. Lee clearly illustrates the levels of Hell and how those who go there suffer so greatly using very descriptive language in his book Hell. It sure makes a person carefully re-evaluate his or her own spiritual condition!

'The Measure of Faith' Seminar Was Held in Maranatha Theological Seminary in India

On February 8, a seminar titled 'The Measure of Faith' was conducted under the guidance of Pastor Joseph Han. It was held at the Maranatha Theological Seminary (President: Rev. Dr. Alexander Joseph) located in Vellanchavadi, Chennai, India. Pastor Joseph Han currently ministers to Chennai Manmin Church. After the video presentation entitled 'Power of God' that shows the ministry of Manmin, Pastor Han gave lectures on 'The Measure of Faith' which is the key sermon of Dr. Jaerock Lee. He explained about the five levels of faith and the heavenly dwelling places given according to an individual's level of faith. They received a lot of grace when it dawned on the students in the seminary how faith is different from person to person. Pastor Han also prayed for them with the handkerchief of power (Acts 19:11-12).

Great and Amazing Power

“Truly, truly, I say to you, he who believes in Me, the works that I do, he will do also; and greater works than these he will do; because I go to the Father.” (John 14:12)

At this end time when knowledge increases and sin and evil are rampant, people need the power of God in order to save countless souls and extend the kingdom of God. God has manifested the power beyond our imagination in Manmin church and He has even given the power that changes the hearts.

When we achieve the mission for evangelization of the Korean Christian Churches and the world, we will have testified to the authenticity of the Bible and lead many people to the way of salvation by changing the hearts and planting faith in them through the best and most High Power through which there is nothing that is impossible.

1. The Power of Jesus, who Resurrected to Fulfill His Duty as the Savior

In Matthew 12:38, some of the scribes and Pharisees said to Jesus, “Teacher, we want to see a sign from You.” But Jesus answered and said to them, “An evil and adulterous generation craves for a sign; and yet no sign will be given to it but the sign of Jonah the prophet; for just as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the sea monster, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.” Here, the sign refers to ‘the death suffered by Jesus and His resurrection on the third day’. Why did Jesus say no sign would be given but the sign of Jonah the prophet?

This is because to perform ‘the sign’ was Jesus’ original and inherent duty. The purpose of Jesus’ coming to earth was to redeem sinners from all their sins through His crucifixion on the wooden cross and shedding blood on sinners’ behalf. And, it was also to become the Savior by shattering the authority of death through His resurrection. This is ‘the sign’ Jesus eventually would show us.

Of course, Jesus endeavored to spread the gospel of Heaven. He also healed a great number of the sick by the power of the Holy Spirit. Those with infirmities like the blind, the deaf, the mute, and the lame were made whole by Him. He even cast out demons from the demon-possessed. He walked on the waters and made the wind and waves of the sea to become calm. He manifested countless amazing works of power.

But such powerful works were just incidental ones that support His primary duty. The works served as proofs to allow for people to believe that Jesus is the Son of God. But what’s the most important fact is that Jesus, the Son of God, died for sinners, resurrected, and became the Savior. He died and resurrected to become the Savior not only of the people living at His time, but also of all people since the Creation. This is the most significant and the greatest sign performed by Jesus.

Address by Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee

2. The Power that Changes Even the Hearts of Men to Accomplish the Providence of the End Time

In Matthew 24:3, Jesus’ disciples came to Him asking, “What will be the sign of Your coming, and of the end of the age?” Jesus answered as recorded in the following verses 5 through 8, “For many will come in My name, saying, ‘I am the Christ,’ and will mislead many. You will be hearing of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not frightened, for those things must take place, but that is not yet the end. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and in various places there will be famines and earthquakes. But all these things are merely the beginning of birth pangs.” He added in the verses 11 and 12, “Many false prophets will arise and will mislead many. Because lawlessness is increased, most people’s love will grow cold.” The verse 14 tells us, “This gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all the nations, and then the end will come.”

Jesus also talked about how Israel would change by the time the Lord comes by likening Israel to the fig tree in Matthew 24:32-33. It says, “Now learn the parable from the fig tree: when its branch has already become tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near; so, you too, when you see all these things, recognize that He is near, right at the door.”

‘The branch of the fig tree becoming tender and putting forth its leaves’ refers to the independence of the State of Israel. It predicted the nation of Israel was to disappear and would later be re-established. Therefore, ‘When you see all these things, recognize that He is near, right at the door’ means that the Lord’s second coming is drawing near when the Israel becomes independent.

3. The Power to Achieve the Providence of God for Korean Churches and the World Mission

Father God has wanted the great and amazing power to work on many people both in the Korean Churches and in the world. But I was told that the corruption in Korean churches is far more wide spread than it appears to be. There are some who have spoken against, opposed, and disgraced the Holy Spirit. If Father God strictly applied His justice to them, there would be so many people who would never be forgiven. But Father God didn’t just say “they are impossible!” and He came up with alternative ways for them.

God has had me prepare the way to embrace them in the space of love beyond justice and clearly present to them that the way to salvation for them is through repentance. Father God wants to open the way to life and wants to show His heart even to those men who are so very evil.

Thus, ‘the power that changes the heart’ is an absolute necessity to accomplish the providence in the Father God’s love towards the Korean Christian community and the world. In the future the church system will grow bigger embracing many people in Christian churches and achieving the global parish. It’s not easy to deal with them with human methods. But workers in charge should try their best to establish the best management system making use of the best wisdom.

As long as they are united as one, all things will automatically go properly. When it comes to pastors in foreign countries or in the remote area, there will be nothing to worry about as long as they have one heart with Manmin Central Church. We Manmin will also make use of this tactic of ‘winning over the heart of men’ to achieve the global parish. It will cause people of the world to sincerely recognize God and realize His love. To accomplish this, the foremost weapon needed is the ‘power that changes hearts’. This will give an opportunity for salvation to people who are destined to die and it will allow for them to have hope for a better dwelling place in Heaven.

Now at this end time, the forces of the Anti-Christ are becoming more influential. They’ve acquired their influence by instigating men of flesh using the authority over the darkness that was given to them by God. We have to confront the Anti-Christ forces and achieve the providence of God at this end time. It’s time to shine the spiritual light together with church workers and pastors who are united in spirit.

I pray in the name of the Lord that Father God will be pleased with your participation in the ministry with one heart so that the great and amazing power of the Holy Spirit will unfold to the whole world and the sound of joy will echo in Heaven.

The Israelites Crossed the Jordan River with Faith

“And the priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan while all Israel crossed on dry ground, until all the nation had finished crossing the Jordan.” (Joshua 3:17)

“To the Reubenites and to the Gadites and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joshua said, ‘Remember the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, ‘The LORD your God gives you rest and will give you this land.’ Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle shall remain in the land which Moses gave you beyond the Jordan, but you shall cross before your brothers in battle array, all your valiant warriors, and shall help them, until the LORD gives your brothers rest, as He gives you, and they also possess the land which the LORD your God is giving them. Then you shall return to your own land, and possess that which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise.’” (Joshua 1:12-15)

◆ Joshua, New Leader and the Second Generation of Exodus

God chose Joshua as a successor to Moses as written in Numbers chapter 27. Joshua was one of the twelve spies who had scouted the Canaan and had pleased God with the confession of faith. He followed Moses like Moses’ shadow as his servant. He didn’t leave Moses but stayed near him even when he fasted for 40 days on the mountain to receive the Ten Commandments. With longing heart he also would not depart from the Tabernacle which is the temple of God.

Since Joshua loved God and trusted Moses with unchanging heart as read in Numbers chapter 31, God chose him as a new leader. God called him to the Tabernacle with Moses. He told them the sons of Israel would disobey Him. Because of the disobedience, they would fall into hardship and suffering. God told them to write the song about what He said as a witness and put it on their lips. Then, Moses urged them again to obey the Law of God and blessed the twelve tribes before his death.

After Moses’ death on Mount Nebo, as recorded in Joshua 1:1-9, God told Joshua to cross the Jordan and enter the Promised Land. He urged him to be strong and courageous and to be careful to do according to all the law which Moses commanded him, not to turn from it to the left or to the right.

Because the first generation of Exodus was born and raised in Egypt, they had weak faith in God and many kinds of forms of evil were planted in their hearts throughout the maltreatment and suppression from Egyptians. On the contrary, the second generation of Exodus was raised by the Word of God and saw innumerable powerful works of God from their childhood. Moreover, they understood why their parents couldn’t get into the Canaan and kept it in their minds. Thus, they vowed to obey Joshua who prepared for entering the Canaan. (Joshua 1:12-18)

◆ The Words of Faith by Two Spies Who Scouted the City of Jericho

The Israelites had to conquer the city of Jericho first to enter the land of Canaan. Jericho was an impregnable city whose inner wall and outer wall stood strong. Furthermore, the people of Jericho tightened up guard against the attack of the Israelites.

Before crossing the Jordan, Joshua sent two men as spies from Shittim to view the land, especially Jericho. The king of Jericho heard that the spies had come into the city and he searched for them. But God stretched His helping hands to the spies through Rahab, a Canaanite woman. She was a harlot but she was of goodness and she believed in the works of God who had guided the Israelites.

The two men escaped from Jericho with the help of Rahab and related to Joshua all that had happened to them. They reported not out of fear nor negatively, but with faith and confidence. It was in this way that they gave glory to God. (Joshua chapter 2)

※ They said to Joshua, ‘Surely the LORD has given all the land into our hands; moreover, all the inhabitants of the land have melted away before us.’ (Joshua 2:24) Their reports were opposite to the reports of the ten spies from Kadesh-barnea. Likewise, those who truly believe God don’t say negative words like “It’s impossible!” or “It’s so difficult!” They only speak words of faith, good words, and positive words. By doing so, they encourage others and plant faith in them.

◆ The Israelites Crossed the Jordan River with Faith

The Israelites were in high morale listening to the reports of the two spies and they went forward toward the city of Jericho vigorously. But they were confronted by the strong current of the Jordan on the way to the city of Jericho. What’s more, the Jordan overflowed all its banks because it was the rainy season. When the time was right, God let them know how to cross the Jordan. He said that the waters of the Jordan would be ‘cut off and would stand in one heap when the priests who carried the ark of the LORD entered into the waters’ of the Jordan.

If the first generation of Exodus had heard it, what would they have said? They’d have grumbled saying God wanted to kill them. But the second generation didn’t utter a single word of complaint or doubt. They believed that it was nothing for God to stop the flow of waters of the Jordan even though the waters overflowed since He had already parted the Red Sea.

Before crossing the Jordan, Joshua told the Israelites to ‘consecrate themselves’. (Joshua 3:5) When the Israelites crossed the Red Sea, only the power of God and the obedience of one man, Moses were needed. When they crossed the Jordan, however, faith of all the Israelites was necessary.

※ At the end of Joshua chapter 3 we find that at the moment when the priests who carried the ark dipped their feet in the edge of the water, the waters which were flowing down from above stood and the waters which were flowing down toward the Dead Sea were completely cut off. The priest who carried the ark stood firm on dry ground in the middle of Jordan while all Israelites crossed on dry ground. As soon as the priests had come up from the middle of the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan returned to their place and went over its banks as before. Through this, the sons of Israel came to put firmer trust in Joshua and revered him just as they had revered Moses.

God told them to take up twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan and put them down at the first lodge place after crossing the Jordan. He also made them set up the twelve stones at the place where the feet of the priests were standing. These stones stand for the twelve tribes of Israel. God wanted them to revere and obey Him by remembering what He had done before them. (Joshua 4:21-24)

Moses foreknew what would happen and commanded the sons of Israel to take up stones and coat them with lime after they crossed the Jordan as written in Deuteronomy chapter 27. So Joshua camped at Gilgal and set up the twelve stones as a memorial there after crossing the Jordan on dry ground. The stones symbolized the Israelites crossed the Jordan on dry ground by the power of God.

“The Love of the Lord Made Me Happy Even in This Foreign Land”

Deaconess Bokyoung Kim (Ida Manmin Church in Japan)

I went over to Japan to attend the graduate school in May, 2001. I had attended church when living in Korea, but it was hard to find a church in Japan. Feeling distressed, I really wanted to go to church. At the moment, my Lord came to me.

I Was Touched by Dr. Jaerock Lee's Books

In the early 2003, Missionary Changmi Lee gave me Dr. Lee's testimonial book Tasting Eternal Life before Death. Reading it, I was deeply moved. Then, I began to attend Osaka Manmin Church. I also read his book The Message of the Cross, which let me realize why I have to believe. Through another book The Measure of Faith, I came to know what a true Christian life is like. It dawned on me that I spiritually had wandered for I didn't know such truth.

Reading the books that contain the core of the Bible, I received a lot of grace and I became sure that I finally met the true shepherd. I talked about the church and Dr. Lee to my boy friend, Kawakuchi at that time. In April, 2003, he experienced healing of serious pollen allergy by the power of God. And he became a Christian.

I Got Married and My Father-in-law Met God

In January, 2004, Kawakuchi and I got married and lived with his father. There was a Buddhist shrine in the home. But I could freely lead a Christian life since my father-in-law was a gentle and kind man. He let me do so.

My father-in-law had suffered from ringing in ears for nine years. It was the cause of him being unable to hear low sounds. In September 2004, I heard about the 2004 Japan Handkerchief Healing Meetings (Acts 19:11-12) that would be held with Pastor Heesun Lee. My father-in-law attended the meeting and received Pastor Lee's handkerchief prayer. He said that he had felt something come out from the top of his head. Then, the symptom of ringing in ears disappeared. He came to hear normally.

In August 2005, he passed away. At that time, a smile broke out across his face. My husband said, "I've never seen him smile that brightly." Seeing him, my husband and I came to be assured about the existence of Heaven and our faith increased.

I Enlarged My Heart-field with Prayer

The Buddhist culture is spread here and there in Japan. There were often conflicts in families because of different religions. My family was no exception. Although my husband was a generous man, I often had troubles with my family-in-law due to the cultural difference or difference in values.

In May, 2007, I moved to Ida and started to attend Ida Manmin Church. I performed my duty earnestly. I thought I'd led a good Christian life. But I couldn't bear abundant fruit. I tried to discover myself and studied myself thoroughly.

I realized that I had usually blamed some of my troubles on others. I changed my mind-set and endeavored to admit my faults. With a humble heart, I respected others and prayed for my husband with all my heart. I prayed to get rid of arrogance, ill-feeling, and the like during Daniel Prayer Meeting every night. I also asked God to help me understand different kinds of people in my workplace and He gave me strength from above to do so. In this way, I circumcised my heart, which led to answers and blessings.

Blessing both in Spirit and Body Runs Over in My Family

In February 2008, I joined Citizen Watches which is a well-known watch manufacturer. After discussing it with my husband, I gave all my first salary to God. God who was pleased with my deed of faith blessed my husband. He was given paid vacation along with pay raise of 50,000 yen. I also was protected from a sweeping restructuring of my company.

In November 2011, we were blessed to have a new house. In January 2012, my 7-year-old daughter, Yuri had flu and a fever up to almost 103°F (39.4 °C). I repented that I had been hot-tempered and burst out in anger trying to teach her. Then, her fever quickly abated. Through this occasion, I was blessed to demolish my self-righteousness and self-framework.

My husband has become a faithful worker for God's kingdom acting as the president of Men's Mission for three years in a row. He even attends the Dawn Prayer Meeting held in the early morning. I am working as a vice president of Women's Mission and a guidance teacher of Wheat Children Praise Team. I can't say how happy I am seeing my family united as one transcending the nationality. I give thanks to the Lord of love.

A Letter from
an Overseas Country

“Through the DVD
‘The Power of God’,
Many Souls Have Accepted Jesus Christ”

Pastor Alfred Roy
(Asan Church, Bangladesh)

I have been spreading the gospel, especially to Muslims and Hindus, in Bangladesh. Last year, I happened to receive the DVD entitled 'The Power of God' from John Kader in Nepal. Watching it, I was amazed by the works of the Holy Spirit. It was because the God-given power manifested by Dr. Jaerock Lee was truly astounding.

Countless people in every scene were giving glory to God after being healed and receiving salvation through the power only God could show. Since that time, I've spread the gospel presenting the DVD many times. By doing that, many people were healed and they were blessed to accept Jesus Christ.

I sent e-mails to the address written on the DVD case. Pastor John Kim (Manmin Mission Center in Delhi, India) sent me Dr. Lee's books and Manmin News. I read the books. In particular, my faith grew reading the Dr. Lee's autobiography My Life My Faith I & II. I also saw Pastor Kim do his ministry with the handkerchief of power and I asked him how to get the handkerchief because I believed the power included in the handkerchief on which the servant of the power had prayed as written in Acts 19:11-12.

Last October, Pastor Kim visited Seoul and gave me the handkerchief on which Dr. Lee had prayed. Since then, I have prayed with the handkerchief. I've seen amazing works when I prayed for the sick. The disabled came to walk and move, and people were healed of diseases such as asthma, and many were set free from mental diseases. They have given glory to God.

Through the power Dr. Lee receives from God, I can testify to the living God and the authenticity of the Bible to many people. I give all thanks and glory to God. I also extend my sincere thanks to Dr. Jaerock Lee.
