Fulfillment of Prophecy on World Affairs and Economic Flow

Results of prophecies on the 6/29 Declaration, future presidential elections and the North-South Summit Talks are right on the mark

Prophecy is not in the will of man. It is a special gift from God given to those who have not only piled up prayer, but have become sanctified and obey the Word of God. The Bible tells us that Noah prophesied about the great flood, Abraham about the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, and Elijah about a great downpour in the drought. Many prophets such as Jeremiah, Amos, Hosea, and Micah prophesied that Israel would fall and be restored. Daniel and Apostle John also received revelations concerning the things that would happen at the end time.

Twenty seven years ago, there was an incident which was a landmark in the democratization of South Korea. On June 29 in 1987, Roh Taewoo, who was the presidential candidate of the Democratic Justice Party, decided to accept the people's demands for direct election, and this was the 6/29 Declaration (The June 29th Declaration).

On June 18 God, who knows everything, gave Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee inspiration and vision. He explained to him that the 6/29 Declaration would be issued and also explained about its contents. In the weekly bulletin that following Sunday that was distributed on June 21, eleven acronyms were printed in inverse order. It was done so because at that time, Korea was under control of a military regime and this was a very major issue.

The acronyms were, in Hangul, Korean letters, "Min, Gey, Yak, Sei, Dae, Gye, Chong, Mo, Roh, Hu, Dae."

It meant, "President (Dae) Chun Doo-hwan issued the 'Protection of the Constitution' to support the presidential candidate (Hu) Roh Taewoo (Roh). But as a man is shot (Chong) in his head (Mo), all plans (Gye) of the 'Protection of the Constitution' would fail. The influence (Sei) of the president (Dae) Chun was weakened (Yak) by the opposition of the people, and to accept the demand of the people, he would issue the 6/29 Declaration. There would be amendment (Gye) of the Constitution to have direct election, and it would be the beginning of democratization (Min)."

In those days, the press predicted that it would be hard for Roh to be elected as the President who was appointed by President Chun because his influence was weakened. But God said that Roh would be elected with many votes.

"Your people want ones who have fought for your country's democratization and been devoted to it as your president. But if the leaders fail to achieve unity and cooperate for good, how can things go well with them? Therefore, without the grace of God, they won't be successful. If the two are not successful, who should be the President? Isn't it natural that the one who has steadily piled up and smoothly achieved many things will be superior to the others?"

People wanted the ones who had been dedicated to democratization to be the President. But God said that if the two candidates Kim Youngsam and Kim Daejung were not united, neither had a chance to become the President. God also let us know the reason Mr. Roh Taewoo couldn't help but be elected. In the end, the two Kims did not become united and Roh was elected as the President. Then, God showed Dr. Jaerock Lee the candidate Kim Youngsam in a flower wagon going into the Cheong Wa Dae, the presidential palace, after Mr. Roh, and then the candidate Kim Daejung went into the Cheong Wa Dae in a flower wagon. Also God let the church know that Mr. Roh Moohyun, Lee Myungbak, and Ms. Park Guenhye would be the successive presidents of South Korea, that Mr. Obama would be the president of the U.S., and Mr. Kim Daejung, former president would die. All of the predictions actually occurred as prophesied.

Additionally, Dr. Jaerock Lee also prophesied even before the church opening that President Park Chunghee would die. He prophesied about South and North exchanges; the European Union; the reelection of Mr. Reagan as the US President; the time of death of Indira Gandhi, Indian Prime Minister; the death of Konstantin Ustinovich Chernenko, who was the General Secretary of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union; the election of Margaret Thatcher to a third term as Prime Minister of the U.K.; and the battle of Kosovo.

In particular, since 2000, God let Dr. Jaerock Lee prophesy about the fluctuation of oil prices; the movement of political flow in the Middle East; and how the world powers, specifically the USA, EU, and the union of China and Russia would trilaterally centralize power. God also let Dr. Lee know about the relations of China and the U.S., the prosperity of China and Russia, the failure of the Sunshine Policy, and the opening and closing of North Korea (Relevant story on Page 4).

Dr. Jaerock Lee has constantly prophesied to plant faith in countless believers by testifying to the living God and extend the kingdom of God so that the church may receive edification.

Manmin Central Church's weekly bulletin's cover and contents, published on June 21, 1987 shows the prophecy of 6/29 Declaration.

Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee

“For the mind set on the flesh is death, but the mind set on the Spirit is life and peace”
(Romans 8:6).

To Become a Person of Spirit

they keep reminding themselves of the person's faults or shortcomings.

Let me give you another example. A district leader congratulated Deacon Kim on his birthday, but he didn't congratulate Deacon Park on his birthday. If Deacon Park entertains spiritual thinking, then there is no reason he should have any negative feels. Rather he may feel happy because Deacon Kim is loved by the district leader. However, if he has fleshly thoughts, he may have ill feelings about it and even recall other things the leader did to him. It might even reveal the complaints and ill feelings that he has previously suppressed and he may think, 'He praised Deacon Kim in the past. He acts preferentially towards him because I am less educated and not as well-off though we both have been faithful.' If one piles up fleshly thoughts such as those of resentment, hard feelings, judgment, condemnation, misunderstanding, jealousy, and envy, then he loses fullness and just builds up a wall of sin between himself and God. Self-condemnation, disappointment, and despair caused by negative thoughts are not of goodness.

When we discover evil in our hearts and lament, if we spiritually lament, God comforts our hearts and gives new strength. We may feel refreshed and feel the love of God. And we can make up our minds again, thinking, 'I will try it again. I will try harder.' But if we want to stop trying or lose heart comparing ourselves with others, our lamentations are definitely fleshly. It is fleshly thought.

Romans 8:6 reads, "For the mind set on the flesh is death, but the mind set on the Spirit is life and peace". Thoughts that provide you with life and peace are spiritual. If some thoughts don't give you peace and even cause you to lose fullness of the Spirit, you should immediately stop having the thoughts.

If the Holy Spirit isn't pleased with your thoughts, you must change them into spiritual and good thoughts right away. Only then can you quickly enter spirit without any stagnation.

2. Do you hear the voice of the Holy Spirit?

1 Corinthians 2:10 states, "For to us God revealed them through the Spirit; for the Spirit searches all things, even the depths of God." Apostle Paul said in 1 Corinthians 2:4, "And my message and my preaching were not in persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power."

Persons of spirit adapt everything to the will of God, not their own will, in achieving God's works. They don't rely on their own wisdom or ways but they look for God-wanted ways and follow them. Here, in order to know the will and ways of God, we should hear the voice of the Holy Spirit.

Of course, wisdom and experience are important in a sense. Some experienced workers may fulfill their duties with methods that they have used when leading other kinds of events, in preaching, or providing counseling. But spiritual workers should also do the duties by hearing the voice of the Holy Spirit.

Let's suppose there is a believer with lukewarm faith and you think you should talk to him. It is easy to think that you will preach about an earnest Christian life with a relevant passage of the Bible. However, if you counsel him in the works of the Holy Spirit you won't just admonish him with words. But instead you will be able to solve his fundamental problem that caused him to be unable to live an earnest Christian life. If he has a strong attachment to the world, you will have to teach him how futile the worldly things are and put hope for Heaven in his heart. If he has been hurt by an emotional crisis and loses heart you will have to offer a message that heals the wounds of the heart. If he is stuck at some place because of fleshly thoughts, you will have to destroy the thoughts. In other words, in order to give spiritual life to others, you must hear the voice of the Holy Spirit rather than counseling them through your own ability.

The same applies when we prepare for some church events. You may predict things that will be needed based on your experience and knowledge thinking, 'I have prepared it every year, so I know how to prepare it, how many people will attend, and how big the event's size will be...' But there are still many variables no matter how well you have prepared it. A person who makes plans based on his or her experience and thoughts can't bear perfect fruit. But if he prepares it by hearing the voice of the Spirit, he can cope with even unexpected situations.

3. How much love do you have?

The heart of spirit is to seek others' benefits. It is to think in others' position, serve them in any circumstance, and rejoice when something good happen to them. On the contrary, there are people who have no interest in others' situations and don't sacrifice themselves and don't suffer a loss. They are just interested in things like, 'I have to go into spirit and receive grace. I have to arm myself with the Word and pile up prayer.' They might think they are longing for the heart of spirit but it is just from selfishness and greed.

When we are faced with trials, it is more clearly revealed whether we possess love or not. A person with love, though he suffers, doesn't want to share his own pain with others. But others without love reveal their pain and discomfort outwardly and cause people around them to empathize with their feelings. They even justify themselves saying "I can't help it". But in order to become a person of spirit, we should pass through tests and enter spirit. Such people don't have love so they rather accumulate evil through the tests and trials.

Men of spirit embrace others with love and virtuous generosity in working for the kingdom of God. Among workers there may be lazy ones or others who keep making mistakes though you continue to teach them or some who deceive you. If you lack spiritual love, you may feel frustrated and they seem to lack something, which causes you to force them to do something.

Of course, persons of spirit should sometimes rebuke others and force them to do something. But even when they do so, they unchangingly regard others more important than themselves and seek others' benefits. If they have to admonish someone with strong words, they naturally harbor him or her more deeply. They pray lest he or she should lose heart and help him or her work better. With such love, you can enter spirit more quickly.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, having a great duty doesn't mean great spiritual faith. We must become sanctified through efforts to circumcise our hearts. What if you work faithfully but you don't have spiritual faith because of fleshly thoughts that haven't been thrown away yet? How pitiful it is! I pray in the name of the Lord that you will surely demolish fleshly thoughts and achieve the heart of spirit.

The Confession of Faith

Here are the prophecies about North Korea that appear in
Dr. Jaerock Lee's testimonial books He Never Stops and My Life My Faith II.
We give all thanks and glory to God the Father who let us see all of them fulfilled.

The Love of God

Revealing Secret Things of the Future

◆ In December 1983, God let our church know that the South would have communication with the North and what would happen after the talk. It was right after the North Korean terrorist attack on many of Korean ministers in Myanmar when they were visiting the tomb of Aung San, so the relationships were completely frozen. But Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee prophesied about it and it happened just as prophesied. God said that when there were talks about selecting one president for both South and North, then, it means the Lord was right at the door. This is something that will happen in the future.

◆ In June 2000, God let us know the result of the Summit Talks. It happened just after (North Korean) Kim Jong-il saw (South Korean) President Kim Daejung off at Pyong-yang Airport. Kim Jong-il and his men then went into a secret meeting room to have secret talks. It was a complete surprise (Refer to the article on the right).

In fact, at that time, North Korean leader Kim Jong-il agreed that he would make a reciprocal visit to South Korea. All people in South believed it and international media agreed it would happen. Kim Jong-il signed that he would make the visit in the North-South joint declaration. But God said, "He won't come. Instead, the second-in-command will come." And it was done as God said.

◆ In January 2004, God said North Korea will seem to open its doors because of the pressure from U.S. on the outside, but in reality the North will do so under necessity.

"North Korea is isolated in many ways and concerned about many things. It is not easy to preserve their own system. Their internal flow also makes the country hard to maintain the system since there are a number of conflicts and discord. They will open because they think the U.S. will protect and guarantee their system and let them maintain it."

Until now, North Korea has maintained more closed system than any other country in the world but it is getting harder for them to preserve their system. Its politics and economy are unstable both domestically and externally. China and Russia, that the North has thought of as being 'friendly nations', have already opened and have experienced rapid changes. The United States is taking a strong stand against the North. In such circumstances, North Korea will find it an increasingly compelling necessity to open their doors in order to maintain its system.

◆ In July 2004, God let us know that North Korea would open someday and then close again not long after. North Korea will open as a result of the pressure from the United States. However, it will close under the support of China and Russia again. The duration of time during which North Korea will open will be short. So the time we can preach the gospel in the North won't be long. When it happens, we should be aware that the Lord's Coming in the air is at hand.

- Excerpts from Dr. Jaerock Lee's book He Never Stops

South-North Summit Talk, just as prophesied

As prophesied by God in 1983, the South-North Summit Talk was held on June 15, 2000.

Just before this talk was held, on June 4, 2000, what would happen in the future in relation with the Summit Talk was proclaimed in Manmin Central Church. "North Korea has their own agenda in having this summit talk. Our representatives shouldn't be deceived. One reason is economy, but it's a small thing. I urge you members to pray for this."

◆ On June 11, in the Sunday service, the prophetic Word of God was explained. "The talks will be conducted. The first talks will be very friendly, taking a walk and even making a joke. There will be many political, economic, and athletic exchanges. But, from the third talk, the president will have difficulties because of their agenda. Please pray that we will be able to prevent a great difficulty. Here, 'taking a walk' means the two leaders will walk and talk in a friendly and intimate way."

In fact, on June 13, when President Kim Daejung arrived at Pyong-yang, Kim Jong-il came to the airport to welcome him. Most people expected that the mood of the talk would be somewhat awkward and tough. But during the President's visit, Kim Jong-il showed a very friendly manner, walking with President Kim Daejung with a very friendly attitude. It surprised the people in the South. His actions even charmed the people in the South. There were even phrases coined like, 'Kim Jong-il Shock,' or 'Kim Jong-il Syndrome.' As God had said, the summit talk was held in a very friendly manner, and they promised to have more talks. When the first talk was held, people were filled with emotions. The whole country was happy about the mood of the meeting.

After President Kim Daejung came back from the visit to North Korea

◆ on June 16 and then on the 18th, in the Friday all-night service and Sunday service, God's prophetic Word was explained again. North Korea showed their friendly attitude and welcomed the President of the South with a very detailed plan. God said that right after Kim Jong-il sent President Kim Daejung off from the North back to the South, he went into a secret meeting room to have secret talks about reunification by force. They analyzed each person from the South and who would be helpful to the North. While the people in the South, having been deceived by the friendly attitude of the North, were dreaming of peaceful reunification, the North was making plans to reunite the countries by force.

God said that Kim Jong-il captured the minds of the people in the South through the short moments of welcoming President Kim Daejung. Until that time the people in the South had a negative image of Kim Jong-il. But through this meeting, it changed into a positive image. It means Kim Jong-il succeeded in his plan to capture the minds of the people in the South to fulfill his goals.

God also said that the so-called 'Sunshine Policy' would not have very good results. When the North receives aid, they would then cooperate, but it would be only temporary. They seemed friendly on the outside, but the inside was completely different. This word came true in reality. The North has been preparing nuclear weapons following their own plans.
