NO. 473 JANUARY 10, 2016

God Will Be Glorified Greatly!

All Peoples of All Nations Will Be Led to Salvation through Endless Power in 2016

“For our 10,000 branch and associate churches in the world, the pastors, and the brothers and sisters in Christ, I pray in the name of the Lord that in 2016 you will fulfill your duty as light and salt everywhere you go, give out the fragrance of Christ, bear the fruit of the Light, and glorify God.”

On December 27, 2015, Dr. Jaerock Lee, Senior Pastor of Manmin Central Church declared the church’s four visions in 2016 in the Year-end General Assembly. God gives the members new visions every year and they pray for them every night in Daniel Prayer Meeting.

❖ First vision, “The Church that the Father Loves” full of the members who will have borne the fruit of the Light (Ephesians 5:9)

The church loved by God who is Light, is one filled with children who have borne the fruit of the Light. Manmin members have been renewed through the shepherd’s sacrifice in the providence of God and are striving to achieve the heart of the Lord who is Light. To bear the fruit of the Light, you have to accomplish all goodness and righteousness and truth.

In order to achieve the fruit of all goodness, you should hate evil and cast away every form of evil. But it is not enough; you need to actively practice goodness and sacrifice yourselves. To achieve the fruit of righteousness, you should obey the Word in the Bible with trust in God and with spiritual faith. The fruit of truth is void of falsehood and unchanging mind. You can bear the fruit of truth when you unchangingly keep goodness and righteousness you have chosen from within your freewill.

❖ Second Vision, “The Church that Leads All Peoples to Salvation” with God’s heart (1 Timothy 2:4)

God, who is Love, wants all people of the world to be saved, to enter the eternal Heaven, achieve the heart of the Lord, and become God’s true children who shine like the sun in the most beautiful heavenly dwelling place, New Jerusalem.

In this end time that is rampant with sins and evil, God wants all peoples of all nations to be saved and grow up as wheat-like believers. That is why He set up this church. We have to lead countless souls to salvation by being perfectly united trusting in the shepherd.

❖ Third Vision, “The Sanctuary Full of the Glory of the Father” because of sanctified children (Psalm 37:6)

God is worthy to be glorified. He receives glory when His beloved children glorify Him with faith and He repays it with great blessings.

As the number of people of spirit and whole spirit increases, the light of glory will be stronger in this church. And, the history of Manmin that has revealed God’s glory will allow for the Canaan Sanctuary and Grand Sanctuary to be built. I hope now you will be more fervent with determination that you will play a key role in the Grand Sanctuary era.

❖ Fourth Vision, “The Church Accompanied with Endless Power” that achieves God’s providence (Psalm 62:11)

The church with endless power means that this church will manifest endless works of power as God’s power is endless.

It is about the works that will be manifested through the 100% completed power of re-creation in the third stage of take-off. Through this power, we will bear unimaginably great fruit. God is leading me to complete this perfect power of re-creation. He has also prepared comprehensive financial blessings in advance. He has also guided pastors, workers, and members to ride on the flow of whole spirit and increase their faith quickly.

In 2016 Manmin will awaken countless souls in slumber in the world and lead them to salvation and knowledge of the truth. As water covers the sea, we will manifest endless power in 2016 so that God’s glory will fill the world fully.

Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee

“For the fruit of the Light consists in all goodness and righteousness and truth” (Ephesians 5:9).

The Church that the Father Loves goodness and sacrifice yourself. What is important here is you shouldn't just do good things outwardly but you must cultivate goodness in your heart.

For example, Ruth served her mother-in-law with utmost goodness and love. She did not draw any lines of limitation thinking, “How much do I have to sacrifice before others say I'm good?” It's not that she was forced to do what she did; in fact, she did not expect to receive any reward or blessing for her service. With her love for her mother-in-law she just volunteered to sacrifice herself to fulfill her duty.

When you act in goodness you have to check if you really long for goodness or you practice goodness from a sense of duty. You should discern your motives. You can bear the fruit of Light when you truly long for goodness from the depths of your heart.

2. The second fruit of Light is 'righteousness'.

Generally, a righteous person is able to sacrifice himself for a cause that is good. It is even to give one's life in sacrifice. Those who are righteous are upright, and they do not forsake loyalty and integrity. They do not compromise with unrighteousness or agree with unrighteous people for their own benefit.

Those who are righteous can also grow up quickly in the faith. They easily practice the commands of God telling us to do, not do, keep, and cast away certain things. They take their duties seriously and faithfully fulfill them. They do not compromise with the unrighteousness but keep the truth. Those who hold to righteousness will have the evidence that God is with them.

When Daniel was thrown into the lion's den for refusing to cease praying, God closed the mouths of the lions to protect Daniel. Also, when he ate only vegetables in order to keep from eating anything prohibited by the Law, God was pleased with him. He was healthier and more handsome than those who had savory foods and on top of that, God gave him amazing wisdom and inspiration, too.

However, you should be careful about one thing here. It is good to follow the truth, but you should not create your own forms of righteousness and frameworks. Although Daniel was a captive, he kept the commandments with his life. But he did not look down on or condemn his people who could not keep the commandments as he did. He did not force them to follow his example.

Even though you keep the righteousness with all your life, if you become arrogant and condemn others, then you cannot shine the light of life to others but instead you become burdensome to them. In order to bear the fruit of righteousness, you should not have your framework of righteousness in your sight but God's righteousness. It is important that the fruit of righteousness must be based on faith more than anything else. Your actions become your righteousness when you obey God's word with trust in Him.

It is said of Abraham, the father of faith, that he was justified by his faith in God. Abraham learned about God from his ancestors since childhood. So, even when he did not have substantial experience with God, he immediately obeyed God's command telling him to leave his household, his father's house. From that time on, Abraham's trust in God became deeper as he experienced the works of God. When God said He would give him a son, even when he was too old to have a child, he just believed God. After he begot this seed of promise, God told him to offer him as a burnt offering, but he just trusted and obeyed (Hebrews 11:17-19). God did not explain to Abraham why He was telling Abraham to offer Isaac. As he trusted God perfectly, he could realize the will of God from his heart.

How lovely Abraham must have been in the sight of God! Of course, such trust was not established overnight. Every time he experienced the works of God, Abraham kept it in his heart again and again. He kept on obeying based on that trust, and he realized the will of God more deeply. He could go into deeper level of spirit.

Eventually, he could show his faith in a situation that could not be understood at all by human thoughts. Through this righteousness of faith, Abraham received the blessing to become the father of faith. Through Abraham, I believe you can understand why trust and love are so important in the spiritual flow of this church. I urge you to understand the deep will of God through complete faith and obedience like that of Abraham, and also practice the truth with all your life.

3. The third fruit of Light is 'truth'

To be true is to have no deceitfulness or changing. You'd not break even the smallest of promises. Once you make up your mind, you never change your mind. Even though you don't see the results quickly, you just keep on going forward toward the goal. Only such true people can be acknowledged both by God and men as being trustworthy.

At times you might have been greatly blessed by messages, realized great things and made up your mind to do certain things. If you just kept the grace you had received and your determination, you'd have quickly stood on the rock of faith and entered into spirit. But even if you have not kept the grace you had received, you can just make up your mind once again and bear the fruit of truth. Then you can certainly become a fruit of spirit.

In order to completely bear the fruit of Light, you must have goodness, righteousness, and truth all together. If you are good but lack righteousness, you might look indecisive and foolish. You wouldn't be able to shed the light of truth on unbelievers, but rather you could be ignored or even manipulated. In the faith as well, you can't lead others to spirit or give birth to life without truth because it would not have been borne of spiritual goodness. On the other hand, if you are righteous but lack goodness, it is not virtuous either, and you can't really shed the light of truth.

So now, even though you have the harmony of goodness and righteousness, you must also have truth in you. Even though you at one time cast away evil with earnest heart and practiced righteousness in obedience, if you take in evil again and choose to disobey, you can't harvest good fruit.

Adam was a living spirit. He was free of evil and only obeyed. But, when he chose disobedience with his freewill, he was corrupted to become flesh. In order to get the whole fruit of Light, we have to cultivate truth, so that we can keep on choosing goodness and righteousness with our freewill.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

I ask you to bear the whole fruit of all goodness, righteousness, and truth and please God. I pray in the name of the Lord in doing so you will receive blessings when you come in and go out.

The church that God loves is the church filled with the children of Light who resemble God who is Light and these children can bear the fruit of the Light. Then what is the fruit of Light and what should we do to become the children of Light?

1. The first fruit of the Light is 'all goodness'.

A beautiful heart is a heart of goodness and free of evil intentions. If you cultivate such a heart you wouldn't have any hard feelings or do anything evil toward anyone. You wouldn't act unbecomingly either in the home or in the work place and you would fulfill your duties without seeking your personal benefit or advantage. You'd be merciful to the poor and want to help others even if it meant sacrificing yourself (Matthew 5:39-42).

If you long for goodness, you will cut yourself off from the evil and untruths of your heart that you previously enjoyed. For example, some of the male members may have liked boxing or other types of fighting sports. Some people feel good when they see one of the players get beaten and bleed or they may curse at the boxers saying they are not good enough. But if you really long for goodness, I believe you no longer enjoy such things now. When you see violence and cruelty, you do not feel good about it. You may even feel bad about it and do away with such things.

Of course, in order to bear the fruit of goodness, you shouldn't just hate evil, but you also need to practice

God's Fervent Love Spread to Japan

Manmin Central Church has spread God the Creator and Jesus Christ, striving to lead all peoples of all nations to salvation with approximately 10,000 branch and associate churches. Let's now hear from Pastor Seungkil Ryu, Chairman of United Holiness Church of Jesus Christ, Japan. We will hear about the works of the Holy Spirit in Iida Manmin Church which served as the foundation stone of the Japanese mission.

▲ Japanese ministry: Japanese branch and associate churches have led countless souls to the way of salvation with the holiness gospel and powerful works

In 1994, the first branch church was established in Japan

I was an ordinary man who worked for a company. One day I was preparing to go on a vacation. Then I heard a voice saying, "Go up to the mountain prayer house with only a Bible." I obeyed and went to the mountain prayer. I fasted and repented that I had not led a proper Christian life.

In 1988, I entered theological seminary. I was guided by my friend in seminary to Manmin Central Church. It was a Friday All-night Service and it was full of the Holy Spirit. In particular, Dr. Jaerock Lee's lecture on Job was like spiritual 'pick-me-up'. In July 1988, I registered in the church and two years later I became a pastor.

In 1992, Korea-Japan United Crusade was held by the church. Japanese pastors who learned the holiness gospel continued to ask the church to dispatch a missionary to their country. So, in January 1994, I was commissioned to serve in Japan and I started the church in Iida, Nagano Prefecture. I began preaching the holiness gospel.

Iida, Shinshu, Nagoya crusades sparked off the Japanese ministry
Dr. Lee was invited to Iida United

Crusade in 1994 and Shinshu United Crusade in 1996. Those crusades resulted in the holiness gospel being spread throughout Japan. The blind came to see, the deaf to hear, some people's bent legs or arms were straightened and they came to walk and jump. People witnessed the amazing works of God's power with their own eyes.

In particular, during the Nagoya Healing Crusade 2000, seven out of thirteen deaf people who were there came to hear and speak. Additionally, countless evidences of the living God accelerated the ministry of Japan.

Japanese pastors were amazed and were blessed seeing the works of God's power and the crusades are still influencing the churches' growth in Japan.

The handkerchief prayer opened a new phase to the ministry

But from a certain moment I felt spiritually limited and the church's growth stagnated. I was praying for this. In August 2004 Rev. Heesun Lee, Manmin World Guidance Pastor, traveled across Japan with a handkerchief crusade trip and presented a new vision of Japanese ministry. We witnessed innumerable believers healed of their diseases through the handkerchief Dr. Lee had prayed on.

In December 2004, Dr. Lee told me to make good use of the handkerchief with faith. I soon held the first handkerchief crusade in Iida Manmin Church. Many members with chronic backache, nocturnal enuresis, and other diseases were healed and I gained spiritual confidence.

From 2005, I started to conduct the handkerchief healing crusade every month. The church members repented thoroughly and received solutions to their problems both in spirit and body that included the healing of diseases. The new comers learned about the spiritual realm and received grace leading to salvation. The believers with weak faith came to have true faith and hope for Heaven. The leaders received grace to run more fervently.

The handkerchief crusade became absolutely necessary in the church members' spiritual growth and the church's revival.

Japanese people experienced God's powerful works

Dr. Lee's prayer for the sick in the service and his prayer recorded on Automated Response System together with the handkerchief have played a major role in the Japanese ministry.

Deaconess Kaneda Shizuko was healed of cold feet and hands, Deaconess Kitahara Akiko, asthma and atopic dermatitis, and Deaconess Hara Chie, was healed of frozen shoulder. Matsushima Daiki was born under the danger of miscarriage through Dr. Lee's ARS prayer. He was also healed of atopic dermatitis through Dr. Lee's prayer through GCN.

Additionally, Shimodaira Miyako was healed of cataracts and frostbite. There are just too many testimonies for me to introduce here.

I laid myself down before the shepherd's sacrifice and devotion

Iida Manmin Church joins every service and Daniel Prayer Meeting of Manmin Central Church via GCN live broadcasting. We hold pastors' seminars and conduct IT ministry. We also spread the gospel to Japanese who do not know about Christianity through community volunteer works.

I thought that I had done many things in the Japanese ministry. Without knowing, I kept selfish-motives in my heart. However, while watching the shepherd sacrifice everything without wanting anything in return, I started to discover and get rid of my arrogance and selfish-motives. I came to realize that everything had been done by the grace of the shepherd, not me. This change of thought served as a chance for me to achieve the heart of spirit.

As I cast off selfish-motive and arrogance, Japanese pastors started to be united. I hope that we will serve as a foundation for Manmin's global parish. I give all thanks and glory to God who endured and waited for me to become renewed.

“My Family Was Renewed by the Holiness Gospel and Is Now Full of Happy Laughter”

Senior Deaconess Eunsuk Kim, age 49, Parish 4, South Korea

I am now the happiest I've been in my life as a doctor. I feel love for patients from my heart. I am so thankful to be a help to them so I find every moment valuable. When some patients show no improvement with medicine or they get worse, I pray. Then they become better. I feel grateful.

Although I was born into a Christian family, I used to go to church only on Sundays. But in 1994, I got married, and my Christian life changed.

My husband is Elder Gilbert Chae, President of WCDN (World Christian Doctors Network). He read Dr. Jaerock Lee's testimonial memoirs Tasting Eternal Life before Death before our marriage. He received a lot of grace and spent much time listening to Dr. Lee's sermons. Thanks to him, I started to keep the whole Sabbath and give the proper tithe so that I became a true Christian.

In March 2002, my husband was appointed to a position in Seoul so we moved to Seoul and began attending Manmin Central Church in Seoul. As we listened to the holiness gospel and saw powerful works, we felt pleased to lead a believing life in such a good church.

In the meantime, though I don't know when it began, I began to feel discomfort toward my husband. He was nice to nurses and patients. I felt jealous for no reason. I complained and felt uncomfortable saying he was nice to others but he did not help me with house chores. I nagged him telling him that he didn't do what I wanted him to do.

In 2011, however, the rapid spiritual flow started in the church. Dr. Jaerock Lee preached about the standard of the level of 'standing on the rock of faith' and put an emphasis on the heart of spirit. My husband and I made up our minds to be renewed and prayed.

Afterwards, in 2014 my husband achieved the heart of spirit, and his words and deeds were totally changed. He helped me with house chores. He washed the dishes, cooked rice, and served coffee and fruit after a meal. He had previously walked around ten meters ahead of me, but he came to walk at my speed. He sometimes carried my bag and sometimes gave me a massage. He served me with heart.

He prayed with his hand on our children's heads in the morning. He acted like a nice friend to our son. My family became full of laughter and happiness. His renewal made me long for sanctification all the more.

I started to serve others, arm myself with the Word, and pray earnestly. I tried to broaden my heart. I tried to rejoice always, pray without ceasing, and give thanks for the grace of the Lord. Meantime, in 2015 by the grace of God, I also accomplished the heart of spirit. Hallelujah!

My children work as leaders in their missions, my husband works as a president of the World Christian Doctors Network that proves the power of God based on medical and scientific data. I am General Manager of Shalom Choir and Financial Director of the Second Chinese Parish. We are so thankful. We give all thanks and glory to God who renewed my family.

“I Was on the Doorstep of Death Due to AIDS!”

Brother Bampa
Sela Omer,
age 65, Kinshasa Manmin
Church, DR Congo

One day I became feverish and started to cough a lot. In May 2011, my body was scarred and the scars bled. Some spots appeared. Since it was so odd, I went to hospital and had a test. Then some medicine was prescribed to me.

The doctor told me that the reaction to the medicine would tell us what disease

I had. And he told me to come back a week later. After I took the medicine, I vomited and felt lethargic. I went to hospital again and he prescribed another medicine and told me to come two months later.

I was weakened and could not walk or eat well. Two months later my son went to the hospital and learned that I had AIDS and I would die soon.

I was in pain because all I could do was wait for death without trying any treatment. With a faint hope, I asked pastors of the church in my neighborhood to pray for me, but there was no improvement or change at all.

While I was in this pit of desperation, my aunt who was attending Kinshasa Manmin Church gave me Dr. Jaerock Lee's books Tasting Eternal Life before Death, The Message of the Cross, and The Measure of Faith. Reading the books, a light of hope came into my heart.

I attended Kinshasa Manmin Church beginning in October 2014. I heard about the power of God manifested through Dr. Lee from Pastor Jacob Lee. I was assured that I would be healed when I relied on God.

From then I stopped taking medicine and attended every service and Daniel Prayer Meeting. I was strengthened there. I felt something supernatural in me. To receive complete healing, I watched the recorded Manmin Summer Retreat 2015 via GCN and received Dr. Lee's prayer for the sick.

Then, the fire of the Holy Spirit scorched my body. At that moment, severe pain in my legs was gone and my body felt light. I had no dizziness and could move my body freely. Afterwards the spots and scars disappeared. I showed great improvement and recovered good health. Hallelujah!

I give all thanks and glory to God who restored my life.
