The Second Myanmar and Laos Pastors' Seminar 2017

From June 6th through 7th in 2017, the 2nd Myanmar and Laos Pastors' Seminar was held with more than 80 pastors and church leaders from 35 churches transcending denominations in attendance. They gathered for the seminar in Mae Sai Church located near the border with Thailand.

Pastor Jaewon Lee, who is ministering to Chiang Rai Manmin Church in Thailand, delivered a message twice a day in the morning and in the afternoon. Based on Dr. Jaerock Lee's sermon series "The Genesis Lectures," he preached about the spiritual world covering such topics as angels, cherubim, and the world of evil spirits. He also preached about true faith and eternal life taken from Dr. Lee's sermon series "The Message of the Cross". The attendees realized the providence and love of God while listening to the profound message concerning the spiritual world. They extended their heartfelt thanks to Senior Pastor

Dr. Jaerock Lee who had first delivered the messages.

At the night of June 6, they had 'Camp Fire Worship and Praise' with the leaders of Chiang Rai Manmin Church. While praising and praying, they mediated on the Lord's love and made a new resolution for the future ministry.

"The Message on the Spiritual World Fascinated Me"

Pastor Yasue, age 45, Yotaya Church in Myanmar

The messages on the spiritual world in the seminar fascinated me. It was my first time to hear about the characteristics of angels, their roles, organization, and order; the cherubim's roles and the world of evil spirits. I did not even realize the passage of time because the message was so sweet and profound. I was so excited that I could not sleep afterwards. The leaders of Chiang Rai Manmin

Church joined together with us. They were all neat and tidy in appearance and dress. They prayed fervently and served us with polite words and humbleness. I was impressed by them. I heard that they had received blessings by keeping the Lord's Day, giving the proper tithe, and praying earnestly. They were witnesses who experienced God's blessing by living by the Word of God. I was much blessed.

I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to Dr. Jaerock Lee, the world revivalist who preaches the 'Message of Life'.

Sunday School Teachers' Conference

At 7:30 P.M. on June 12, the Opening Service was offered up. Pastor Taesik Gil, President of Central Regions' Assembly, delivered the message.

Manmin Prayer Center President Boknim Lee, Pastor Esther Chung, Pastor Miyoung Lee, Pastor Mikyung Lee, Pastor Soojung Kim, Senior Deaconess Geumsun Vin, and Praise Leader Rose Han gave lectures. Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee

“And his master praised the unrighteous manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the sons of this age are more shrewd in relation to their own kind than the sons of light” (Luke 16:8).

The Unrighteous Manager

When Jesus taught His disciples, He spoke in parables for better understanding. But many people do not clearly understand the spiritual meaning and interpret them in many different ways. Today’s message is one of the parables that people find hard to understand. Let’s now look into the parable of the unrighteous manager.

1. The Unrighteous Manager Squandered His Master’s Possessions

Jesus started the parable in Luke 16:1, saying, “There was a rich man who had a manager, and this manager was reported to him as squandering his possessions.” Here, the rich man refers to Jesus Christ, and the unrighteous manager to a hired shepherd (John 10:12). ‘Squandering the master’s possessions’ means that a hired shepherd failed to lead the flock, which the Lord entrusted to him, to full assurance of faith, for he did not take good care of them.

Here, the unrighteous manager does not only refer to pastors who do their ministry to make money, but refers to church leaders who fail to lead their group or cell members to be in the grace of God, stay full of Holy Spirit, and grow in their faith. They squander the master’s possessions. Not fulfilling their duties well but causing the works of God to be delayed are also ‘squandering the master’s possessions’.

People like the hired hand are interested in gaining honor and power and being served. They do not care about their duty and do not cherish the precious mission given to them by the Lord. Thus, they are unable to help people grow in faith even if they teach them.

Luke 16:2 says, “And he called him and said to him, ‘What is this I hear about you? Give an accounting of your management, for you can no longer be manager.’” Although one was faithful in his duty once, if he lost the deeds he did at first and does not repent, his duty will be taken away and given to another person as Revelation 2:5 says, “I am coming to you and will remove your lampstand out of its place...”

2. The Reason the Master Complimented the Unrighteous Manager

In Luke 16:3, when the unrighteous manager heard he would not be able to continue to do his duty, he worried about what he would do afterwards rather than looking back upon his past and repenting. He summoned each one of his master’s debtors, and did them a favor by letting them rewrite their bills. They were allowed to change a hundred measures of oil into fifty and a hundred measures of wheat into eighty in the bill. The manager thought if he did them a favor they would help him after losing his job.

His master found it out, but he praised the unrighteous manager for his shrewd deeds. Why did the master praise the manager? Here, ‘his master’s debtors’ spiritually refer to people who have not accepted the Lord and not received salvation. They are still under the burden of sins.

The unrighteous manager wrote off some of their debts. It spiritually means that he taught them about Jesus Christ and salvation through His name although he could not lead them to perfect salvation.

Thus, the Lord who desires more souls to receive salvation, praised the unrighteous manager. He said, “The sons of this age are more shrewd in relation to their own kind than the sons of light” (Luke 16:8). It does not really mean the sons of this age are more shrewd than the sons of light. But it says, “in relation to their own kind”. In other words, in this age which is the age of darkness, what the unrighteous manager did is considered acting shrewdly.

3. The Truly Shrewd Are Not the Sons of This Age But the Sons of Light

“The sons of light” refer to those who devote themselves to practicing the Word of God and teach it to people without compromising with the world in any kind of situation. They believe all the words in the Bible, put them in practice, and teach them to people. They are followed by works that confirm their words and thereby lead their flock to have faith and hope.

“The sons of this age” refer to those who teach people about Jesus Christ and the way of salvation but they rather compromise with the world depending on the situations than choosing what is right in the sight of God.

They say they are teaching the Word of God, but they are teaching within their limits. They are unable to show God’s works. Moreover, if someone in their church experienced spiritual things that they themselves had never experienced, they try to stop them. They preach about God just enough to avoid conflicts with people of the world, and they join the thoughts and ways of worldly people following their benefits. They seem to act shrewdly because they adapt to their circumstances.

However, God recognizes those who never compromise with the world even if others speak ill of them (Matthew 10:28). True pastors worthy to be recognized by God guide their flock to have perfect faith by showing the works of God more than to teach the message of salvation. They should circumcise their hearts, and show good examples in their deeds. Only then can they be acknowledged as shrewd and praiseworthy.

4. ‘Making Friends for Yourselves by Means of the Wealth of Unrighteousness’

Luke 16:9 says, “And I say to you, make friends for yourselves by means of the wealth of unrighteousness, so that when it fails, they will receive you into the eternal dwellings.” It indicates that we should embrace even unrighteous people, open the way for them to turn back, change them, and lead them to perfect faith. When they receive salvation and reach Heaven, they will welcome us into their dwellings in Heaven.

Therefore, we must not give up on those who are not right in the sight of God and who are still living in the flesh. Although they may have little faith and live against the will of God, if we admonish them with love, pray for them, and patiently hope for them until the end, they will change and be able to enter Heaven.

If we embrace all people and achieve the heart of the Lord who loved even the one who would betray Him, Judas Iscariot, until the end, then we will be able to hold all peoples of all nations in our hearts as good-hearted managers and guide countless people to the way of salvation.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, God’s children are managers who take care of the Lord’s possessions. We should increase His possessions every day as faithful managers and become good-hearted managers who resemble the Lord. I pray in the name of the Lord that by doing so you will receive God’s love and His compliment.

Do You Have the Heavenly Kingdom in Heart?

Jesus said in Luke 17:21, "The kingdom of God is in your midst."

If we have the heavenly kingdom in our hearts, what will our life be like?

Let's delve into three characteristics of those who have the heavenly kingdom in their hearts.

You Will Be Full of Joy Due to Hope for Heaven

Suppose a person is old and homeless. He hasn't eaten for several days. He may feel hungry and painful. But, what if this person has a lottery ticket in his pocket that won a huge sum of money? He would not feel so pained about his situation, but rather he would have hope for the future when he would receive the money. Then, he might even feel happy although at that moment he was in a difficult situation.

Heaven is a place where there are no tears, sorrow, pain, or death. For God's children, this beautiful Heaven has been prepared. Our life in Heaven is eternal, but our earthly life is momentary. So, those who have hope for Heaven do not really care about the difficulties of this life. The greater our hope for Heaven the greater our joy in heart.

It is because of our spiritual longing. We wonder how our heavenly dwelling places are being built, and what rewards and how much we have piled up in Heaven. We think about what we will confess to our Lord Bridegroom and our God in the future.

If we have Heaven in our hearts in the way, we will be able to adorn ourselves as the Lord's beautiful brides. Colossians 3:1-2 says, "Therefore if you have been raised up with Christ, keep seeking the things above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your mind on the things above, not on the things that are on earth." Let's set our mind on the things above and rejoice with the hope for Heaven!

Your Love for God and the Lord Will Become More Ardent

Because one thinks little of Heaven, he takes a little time to think about God. Instead, he looks at things of the world and seeks worldly pleasure. Even if he prays, he cannot receive grace and inspiration from above. As he loses the strength to pray, he may skip praying a couple of times and eventually he will stop praying. He may even begin to skip worship services.

Because his heart is filled with worldly things, he doesn't gain understanding even in the worship services, nor does he receive any grace from them. He may think he knows the messages delivered and just falls into idle thoughts. This way, his Christian life turns into formality and his faith turns lukewarm or even cold.

Thus, 1 John 2:15 says, "Do not love the world nor the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him." You cannot love the world if you have the love of God who created everything for us and is cultivating us in preparation for Heaven, and the love of the Lord who was crucified to give us forgiveness of our sins and salvation.

As you have more hope for Heaven, you will want to live by the Word of God more and miss Him all the more all the time. You cannot love both God and the world. If you accept one of them, the other will go away. It's just like when darkness comes, it is the light that disappears, and when the light comes, the darkness goes away.

When you long for Heaven and love God, the worldly things are no longer pleasure to you. You will be poor in spirit and hunger for God's grace. You will hunger and thirst for righteousness. You will desire to experience influences of the Holy Spirit in prayer in which you can throw away sins and understand spiritual mysteries.

Also, when you care for the souls and work faithfully for the kingdom of God, comfort and peace in your heart is so great. Spiritual joy cannot be compared with any pleasure of this world. The moment you get up and open your eyes in the morning, God's love flashes through your mind, and when you look up to the sky on the street, you will naturally confess; "Father, I love You! Lord, I love You!"

You Will Be More Faithful in Everything

Some active and diligent people work hard in every matter. Some other people are very faithful in only the works that they like. But for the things they don't like, they just do them reluctantly. They even complain, and when somebody doesn't seem to be diligent, they have discomfort and break peace. Thus, we cannot say one is truly faithful just because he is hard-working in a fleshly sense. True faithfulness comes from a good heart, love for God, and hope for Heaven.

If Heaven is in our midst, we will naturally be faithful anywhere and anytime. We will serve our family members with all our hearts and do it with joyful faces. We will also be filled with joy and thanks in the workplace and receive recognition from others by trying our best in every matter. We can endure those who are not as capable as others. We will seek the benefit of others. In the church, we will be even more faithful to fulfill our duties. We will cultivate generous hearts, have peace with everybody, and be praised by all people.

If you think you are faithful in the church, but you are not as faithful at home or in the workplace, you cannot say you truly have Heaven in you. You should check whether you have fleshly attributes in your heart that motivate your desire to only do what you want to do.

Psalm 37:3 reads, "Trust in the LORD and do good; dwell in the land and cultivate faithfulness." If you really love God and yearn for Heaven, you will try to give glory to God in everything of your life. You should be faithful not only in a certain aspect but in all aspects. Then, you can feel the joy of Heaven.

Let's look back as to whether we can really be acknowledged as faithful Christians in our family and workplace, and what kind of person we are in the sight of other people in terms of fulfilling our duty. Thereby, let's dwell on whatever is true, whatever is lovely, and whatever is of good repute.

“I Was Set Free from a Huge Debt!”

I organized a mutual financing group with friends, but in 2014 they betrayed me and I ended up having to pay back even their debts. The creditors recalled the debt and finally sued me. I had to pay back around 34 thousand dollars, which was so huge that with my salary it would have taken me 13 years to pay it all back.

I was so painfully distressed that I thought about suicide. Meantime, in November 2014, Deaconess Indira, one of my relatives, guided me to Chennai Manmin Church, ministered to by Pastor Joseph Han. My husband also went to the church. We paid the debt back as he worked as an auto rickshaw driver and I worked in my workplace. Although we were in such difficulties, we tried to make peace with others following the good teaching of Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee and were paying the debt back. In the meantime, an amazing work of God occurred for me.

On February 24, 2017, I went to court in the early morning to handle the accusation. I received Senior Pastor's recorded prayer for the sick and looked up to the sky. Suddenly, white light came to me and warmly surrounded me. The love of God was felt, and I shed tears. Ten minutes later, the judge called me and said I was innocent of that accusation. He added that we would not have to pay the debt back any longer as we had paid it back diligently. We were set free from the debt. Hallelujah!

My daughter Pavithra (right) had her eardrum ruptured four years ago. She received surgery but suffered from the aftereffects. In the previous Special Daniel Prayer Meeting, however, she received the baptism of fire of the Holy Spirit and was healed. My son Vijay (left) could not go to the university due to tuition fees but he went back to college.

I feel so thankful for becoming God's child. Moreover, my family became happy by the power of the shepherd. I give all thanks and glory to God!

“I Was Healed of Shingles Quickly by Senior Pastor's Prayer”

Deacon Boyoung Baek, age 62, Parish 16

On May 5, 2017, I got blisters on the left side of my lips. I had a chill and ached all over my body. On the morning of May 8, I had blisters from the left side of lips to my cheek and scalp.

I was diagnosed with shingles and heard that I had even inflammation in my ear. I was so afraid that I took medicine and got an injection. But at night, I had pain in my gums and could not sleep due to pain that felt like something poking me with a gimlet.

On May 9, my wife Deaconess Keumsoon Lee advised me to repent of my past wrongdoings and said that she would pray for me with the handkerchief on which Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee had prayed (Acts 19:11-12). At the moment I knelt down in the living room, I shed endless stream of tears.

I looked back upon my past and repented thoroughly because I had not lived by the Word. My wife laid the handkerchief on my head and played Senior Pastor's prayer for the sick recorded on the telephone Automated Response System. Then, a chill was gone and pain was relieved.

On May 10, I watched GCN all day. After every Senior Pastor's sermon, I received his prayer for the sick. In the evening, I went to bed early and the next morning when I woke up, I felt no pain on my face at all.

I ran to the restroom, checked myself in the mirror, and shouted with joy. The blisters turned into dark scabs, swelling of my face subsided, and I had no pain. I was so happy that I cried shouting, “God worked on me!”

I went to hospital to check my healing. The doctor said, “You could have gotten in a big trouble. You were about to lose vision or hearing ability.” I could see I was healed of it. I give all thanks and glory to God. I extend my thanks to Senior Pastor who prayed for me.

“I Was Healed of My Torn Cartilage in My Knee”

Sister Ire Jin, age 19, Students' Sunday School

In February 2017, I was practicing running for my college entrance exam. I was breaking my stride to slow down. At the moment, I came down hard as my left foot hit the ground and I felt pain in my knee. Although the pain persisted, I just thought it would get better. However, when I got up the next day, I could not stretch my knee. The ultrasonography result showed that the cartilage in my knee was torn and blood pooled.

I wore a cast on my left leg for a month, but pain remained. I could not practice for the test and just did remedial exercises. I felt pressure about the test. In late April, I had Taekwondo kicking test for increasing my rank. I endured the pain during the test. I became more and more earnest for healing.

On May 6, when high school students met Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee, I received his prayer. He prayed earnestly, “Let it be burned with the fire of the Holy Spirit and the baptism of fire. Let the power of God cover the cartilage in her knee and make it whole.” I felt his great love for me and tears welled up suddenly. From that day on, my knee began to get better. On May 10, I had no pain at all and I did not have any problem in running and jumping. Hallelujah!

Ultrasonography Results

Before the prayer: The cartilage in her knee joint was torn, which caused a hematoma.

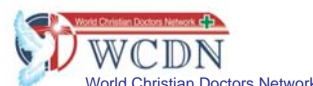

After the prayer: The hematoma caused by the torn cartilage was gone.
